Circuit Court,

District of Columbia for the Court of Washington, June Term, 1807

IN CHANCERY,

John Threlkeld, complainant, versus Henry Fisher, and Cæsar Lowry, defendants.

The bill states that the complainant was seized in fee simple of a certain lot of Ground, in George Town, that he sold the same to the said Henry Fisher, one of the defendants, for a valuable consideration, on the payment of which, the said complainant by his bond of conveyance, agreed to convey the same to the said Fisher—that said bond was executed in November seventeen hundred and ninety seven, at the time the said Fisher passed his bond to the said complainant, for the payment of one hundred pounds, being the consideration for the said property—that the said Fisher has never since paid any part, either principal or interest of said purchase money—that the said Fisher hath assigned his interest in the said bond of conveyance to Cæsar Lowry, the other defendant—that neither Fisher nor Lowry hath paid any part of the same, altho' the said complainant hath offered to convey the same to the said Lowry, on payment of the purchase money aforesaid which the said Lowry refused to do. The object of the bill is, to compel a compliance with the contract aforesaid of the said Fisher. It is represented by the said complainant that the said Fisher hath eloped or absconded from the District of Columbia, to some distant part of the United States, out of the jurisdiction of any process of this court. It is therefore ordered that the complainant procure a copy hereof to be inserted in the American, in Baltimore, for six successive weeks, requiring the appearance of the defendant, Fisher, in this Court on the fourth Monday in December next.
