Council Chamber Annapolis March 9 1826

Gentlemen of the Senate, and of the House of Delegates,

I have the honor to transmit herewith, sundry communications from our Senators and Representatives in Congress, acknowledging the receipt of Resolutions passed by the General Assembly, among which was received from General Samuel Smith last evening, by which it will be seen that the President of the United States has recommended to the favorable consideration of Congress, the claim of the State for Interest upon the Money advanced and expended for its defence in the late War, in the decided terms, that from its manifest justice, was to have been expected. We may now indulge the pleasing anticipation of a speedy adjustment and payment of this claim.

With the highest consideration, I have the honor to remain, your Obt. Servt.
