Queen Annes County

J. Waters Russell has sold for J. D. Clow his farm near Starkey's Corner, to Howard Crowding, of Kent county.

W. J. Massey, Price, Md., notifies the public that until further notice he will take wheat on storage in exchange for flour.

Read the Fall announcement of E. E. Kennard in this issue. His assortment of Fall and Winter goods is now complete. Don't fail to read his advertisement.

The Ladies Aid Society of Ruthsburg M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Leager, Saturday evening, October 1st, at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody invited.

A meeting of the Democrats interested in getting the vote of the First District registered is scheduled to be held in Sudlersville next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Be sure to attend.

The Pickerington Farm, near Maryland, has selected Roy Carter M. Elliott, who was its standard bearer in the approaching Congressional fight, in the First Congressional District of Maryland.

The first regular [illegible] of Centreville Lodge No. [illegible] A. F. and A. M. for the fall term will be held in Masonic Hall, Opera House, Centreville, on Monday evening.

[illegible] who recently [illegible] suggestion. He ships a special assortment [illegible] to fall and winter [illegible] announcement this week.

Lemuel W. [illegible] near Crumpton has purchased the [illegible] farm adjoining the Chester and Everett Farm, and the Chester Farm, near Church. Mr. W. has sold his farm near Crumpton to Mr. Howard Turner, of Queen [illegible].

The largest number of [illegible] entered at a [illegible] in Queen Anne county are at Centreville, Ruthsburg and Queen Anne. The [illegible] are [illegible] and [illegible] are [illegible].

The annual [illegible] of Methodist episcopal church will be held [illegible] evening at the home of Mr. W. [illegible] William M. Earle. [illegible] public [illegible] cordially invited.

[illegible] who were [illegible] Day by the church. At [illegible] M. E. Church on [illegible] Wednesday, October 4th, [illegible] Flowshare.

The Epworth League of Methodist church, Queen Anne, [illegible] organized [illegible] Monday evening, October 1st, [illegible] Mrs. Ida Everett, President; A. A. Wilson, President; [illegible] Secretary; [illegible] Treasurer.

A PRAYER FOR PEACE.

(TO-MORROW IS PEACE DAY)

"O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and who in thy Holy Word hast taught us that one is our Father, even God, and that all we are brethern. We pray thee in this dark hour of international strife that thou wilt open the eyes of the people and those who in thy Name are intrusted with the authority of government, to see and understand their right and true relation to thee and through thee to one another. Teach them by thy spirit that hatred and violence are not strength but weakness, that the true safeguarding of a nation is not to be found in weapons of war, but in those eternal principles which make for righteousness and truth and brotherhood and peace. Give to those who shall suffer in the war which is raging now the consolations of thy grace. Heal the sick, comfort the wounded, minister to the dying, and bind up the broken heart. Bring, we pray thee, to a speedy end this international strife, and hasten the time when peace shall flourish out of the earth, and all shall dwell together in unity and love, and war shall be no more. We ask it in the Name of Our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen."

Because they persisted in shooting at bullseats within the town limits, after being warned by Bailiff Joseph S. Sparks, four Queenstown sportsmen were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Roberts last week and fined for violating a town ordinance. Two paid $1.[illegible] each, another $[illegible] and the fourth $1.[illegible].

Prof. William James Heaps, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, who has made frequent trips to various camps in Queen Annes county and who has, upon several occasions, addressed public gatherings in Centreville, has been nominated as the Republican candidate for Congress from the Second Congressional District of Maryland.

A Stevens Dairy [illegible] passed through Centreville last Saturday bound for Texas. The [illegible] are [illegible] Miles River, New Talbot county. Three ladies were in the car. They had a neat [illegible] and neighborly maid. The car was one of the largest ever seen here.

People in Queen Anne county [illegible] were never better than at present. The heaviest trees are loaded with pears but we take a heavy frost to-night. Cold weather will [illegible] hundreds of [illegible] hard winter. The walnut trees and hickory trees are also [illegible] nuts.

The State Board of Agriculture met last week in the city of Baltimore and [illegible] the State and [illegible] aspect of assessments, the [illegible] by which the farmers [illegible] the assessment [illegible] secretary, the assessment [illegible] the last two years [illegible] Queen Anne's farmers an register. Those who failed to do so [illegible] will not be entitled to a vote in the general election [illegible] important but [illegible] ty or your [illegible] Be sure to register Tuesday.

Basing their platform on the total destruction of the liquor traffic and pledging a new war against the Anti-Saloon Nations, Prohibition Party, the Prohibition delegates to the State Convention in Baltimore last Saturday nominated candidates for the United States Senate and Congress as follows: Senate, E. Henry Hooper, First District; Rev. C. M. Elderdice, Second District; Emory E. Ebaugh, Third District; H. S. Johnson, Fourth District; Wm. M. Gee, Fifth District; John Bartlett, Sixth District; [illegible]

Mr. L. D. Shank, manager of the Centreville Municipal Electric Plant, received a telegram Wednesday morning advising him that his little two and a half year old daughter had died in Philadelphia following an illness of more than six months. Death was due to a tumor of the eye. Mr. Shank left Thursday morning for Philadelphia. Interment was in Milford, Delaware Cemetery yesterday morning.

Mr. Charles R. Price, who resides on a farm in the Fifth Election District, left several ears of the White Dent corn at [illegible] office Tuesday. This corn was brought from Illinois and placed in the car. Mr. Price has a [illegible] ears of this corn [illegible] car contained [illegible] was average [illegible] grains to the row. This was a total of [illegible] grains to the ear. Several other ears were nearly as [illegible].

Delegates from various sub-[illegible] unions of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Queen Annes county attended the fall convention in the Methodist church, Sudlersville, beginning Tuesday. The convention was the largest and most [illegible] ever held in Queen Anne county. Mrs. [illegible] Maryland [illegible] was present and addressed the convention. [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Maryland [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Maryland [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Maryland