FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

You cannot force poor land to produce good crops if you throw away your ashes and let the stable, henhouse and pig pen manure waste.

Eating full meals of country plenty, with no exercise is sure to injure the health. Stir about, if it is only to go visiting, sled riding or wood cutting.

The gift of a spade, a rake and a hoe to the small child, instead of a toy pistol, a drum or a velocipede, makes all the difference between a good useful citizen and a turbulent misfit.

You can't make a good farm-hand out of a natural born city bum. It has been tried repeatedly, and it won't work. The good farm-hand is born with a love of country in his blood.

The man who makes a success of farming doesn't spend all his surplus money for autos and fine machinery, but puts some of it into young trees, good seed, fine stock and better hens, not forgetting better fences and barn plant.

Science says that we are growing more manly girls and old womanish lads and to look at the way they act and talk proves it. A real man isn't always hunting trouble, lighting cigarettes, chattering gossip, or making mischief among people.

Many farm papers are entering enthusiastically into the "trapping article" campaign, in spite of protest. All small, inoffensive wild creatures bearing fur do well to tremble at the prospects of long hours of intense agony, and then death, to please woman's foolish vanity.—Farm Journal.

J. D. Frampton, painter, Chesterfield Ave., Centreville, says: "My kidneys were too frequent in action and I was forced to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions. The secretions scalded and were highly colored. My back gave me considerable trouble and whenever I stooped over sharp pains shot through the small of my back. I could see black spots and flashes before my eyes and at times I had spells of dizziness. I finally bought a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Holland & Thompson's Drug Store and noticed relief from the first few doses. I took three or four boxes and was greatly relieved."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Frampton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine.
