A. R. LEONARD.

THE subscriber having purchased the new and very superior schooner A. R. Leonard, built by Messrs. Hughlett & Leonard, and launched in November last, solicits a share of public patronage in the grain and other freighting business on Third Haven Creek and adjacent waters.

The A. R. LEONARD is a fast sailor, and her Captain, CHARLES KEMP, is remarkable for energy and promptness; and as she draws but 2½ feet of water when light, and 5½ feet when loaded, carrying below deck 3000 bushels and 3750 bushels easily when the deck is loaded, her patrons may confidently expect that she will afford them advantages and facilities, superior to those offered by any vessels they have heretofore employed.—The shippers of grain will not be charged back freights on any articles except on coal, lumber, bricks, lime, shells and guano; and the rates will be the same as those generally charged on Third Haven Creek.

The subscriber will attend to the freighting business of the schooner on this shore, and communications will reach him at his residence and if by maill through the Post Office at Trappe.

Selling Out to Close.

HAVING bought the store where I now am more on speculation than with a view to its continuance, and finding it inconvenient to attend properly to my farming interests in connexion therewith, I have made arrangements to sell out and close business on the first day of April next!

AND NOW FOR BARGAINS.

Any thing I may have in store I will sell very low for the next 60 days, and many things at cost.

MONEY SAVED IS MONEY MADE.

If you believe in the doctrine come up and be an active energetic believer. I have about $1[illegible] worth of Boots and Shoes, to dispose of by retail, package or case.

All down in price to suit the stringent times—
Call in and bring along the Ready Dimes;
Young Cattle, corn or wheat will either do,
Or if a paying man, it would afford
Me much pleasure to credit you.

Also about 400 dollars worth of choice Liquors, by the bbl., and many other things too tedious to enumerate.

The Public's Ob't Serv't,

Millinery & Mantuamaking.

MRS. E. A. MASON having bought Miss S. C. Patchett's interest in her Millinery and Fancy store on Dover street, and having just returned from the city with her Fall Millinery she is now prepared to accommodate the Ladies of Easton and vicinity, with every article that is usually kept in a Millinery and fancy store.

Having procured the services of Miss Patchett and a Lady from the city, she will be able to conduct the business with neatness and punctuality, and at moderate prices. An early call from the Ladies is respectfully solicited.

Mantuamaking.

She will continue to carry on the mantuamaking, and has brought from the city all of the latest fashions for ladies dresses, &c. Also dress trimmings of great variety and of the latest style, which I will sell very cheap. The Ladies are solicited to call and see my patterns and dress trimmings. oct 24-tf E. A. MASON.
