at choral Under the baton of Harry Ruder, the school band gave three well - coordinated numbers, including the "Prayer and March" from "Der Freischuts" (Von Weber) and a work for solo coronet that demonstrated the promising ability of Robert East.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to "Show Time — The Great Society," written and conducted by Georganna M. Chester, head of the music department.

In seven scenes, which moved with professional smoothness, the "issues facing Americans today" were depicted. Job and Peace Corps, Outer Space (with electronic music) in Older and Younger citizens and The Arts in singing, dancing combined in an attractive and rousing production.

The choreography, for which Ida Thomas was responsible, added much to the gusto and imaginative interest.

The grand finale — the triumphal scene from the opera "Aida," was colorfully staged with authentic costumes and setting.

The entire chorus, with soloists, sang the famous Verdi chorus, with band accompaniment, in fine style.

It is to be hoped that "The Great Society" will be repeated, as it can be a most effective means of presenting President Johnson's current project to the general public.

Following the program, members of the cast presented floral tokens to Carroll S. Rankin, principal and faculty members who were responsible for the success of the evening.

PTA of Edmondson High School presented the program and the art exhibit of student work, which was hold in the lobby.

WILLIAM C. BROWN, lyric baritone, made his second appearance in the Murphy Auditorium at Morgan State College last Sunday in a song recital.

Long an earnest and dedicated student of voice, Mr. Brown presented a program of Italian arias, French art songs and several groups of romantic works in English.

An enjoyable feature of the recital was the unusually clear diction, which was aided by the singer's increased confidence in voice production and control.

The French songs by Debussy, Gounod and Hahn, afforded some of the best moments of the afternoon, as they were sung with sensitive intergretation, yet with a warmth that is often missing.

The piano accompaniments of Robert Earle Anderson, who is one of the most accomplished Baltimoreans in that field, contributed a vitality and imagination to each work.

It would be a welcome addition, if Mr. Brown could convey, thru his stage presence, his quietly genial personality and thus establish a closer rapport with his audience.

Bruce Keen, 17 - year - old guitarist, as the assisting artist of the afternoon, demonstrated technical ability of considerable promise, in a program of classic works, mostly by Spanish composers.

He is a student of George Yeatman and plans to enter the new Peabody course in classical guiter.

An interesting and informative history of the instrument was given during the concert by Julian Mager.

Members of the Morgan College MEENC sponsored the recital.

FROM NOW ON FRESH MILK IS NOT THE BEST MILK FOR COOKING.

NEW IMPROVED VELVETIZED CARNATION IS. Why? Because Carnation Evaporated Milk has been improved. It's velvetized. What's velvetized mean? It's that little something extra that changes everything. New improved velvetized Carnation performs miracles with everyday meals, makes everything better than fresh milk ever could. Makes meat loaf juicier, never crumbly. Makes soups creamier, sauces smoother, and is twice as nutritious as fresh milk. New improved velvetized Carnation is the modern, economical, better cooking milk. Try the recipe for Meat Loaf Continental and see how much better meat loaf can be when it's made with new improved velvetized Carnation.

MEAT LOAF CONTINENTAL
1½ pounds ground beef
½ cup fine cracker meal
1 egg
½ cup chopped onion
1 teaspoon garlic salt
½ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
⅔ cup (small can) undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK

Combine ingredients. Mix lightly. Place in 8½ x 3½ x 2½ inch loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) about 50 minutes. Let stand on a wire rack about 10 minutes before removing to serving platter.
