A picture we see of a beautiful face,
Reflecting an image of Heavenly grace,
A picture which shows many virtues divine,
And yet an expression of sweetest love there.
The work of an artist, the loveliest art—
A picture of "Mother" that is framed in our hearts;
And though she has crossed to her Heaven of rest,
Sweet memories of Mother lie wrapped in our breasts.

Her voice we hear, saying, "My dears, follow me."

Though some of these very same people
Have stabbed me to my heart.
Abuses, slanders and heartaches

Ask House unit probe of Dr. King

WASHINGTON (UPI)

The House Committee on Un - American Activities Thursday received a petition containing the signatures of 106,341 persons who want it to investigate Dr. Martin Luther King and some national civil rights organizations.

The petitioners asked the committee to find out if communism has infiltrated any of the organizations, and if so to what extent.

The Rev. Bill Beeny, a Baptist minister from St. Louis, said the names were collected from 48 states with the help of "several right-wing groups" such as the John Birch Society and some local White Citizens Councils.

IN ADDITION, he said, Sheriff Jim Clark, the controversial segregationist from Selma, Ala., had made available the mailing list he uses to solicit support around the country.

Beeny described himself as a "segregationist but not a racist."

Accepting the petition on behalf of the committee was Rep. William Tuck, D-Va. Tuck said he would bring it to the attention of Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., and hoped the committee would agree to investigate communist influence in so-called civil rights groups.

"It is clear to every informed citizen that communists have infiltrated the civil rights movement," Tuck said.

TUCK TOLD Beeny, however, that without special authorization from the House, the committee cannot investigate any person or group.

He simply investigate communism or subversion and follow it wherever it may lead," he added.

The organizations named in the petition were the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Dr. King; the Student nonviolent Coordinating Committee, the Congress of Racial Equality, and the Black Muslims.

CORE raps OEO cutback

NEW YORK (UPI) — Floyd B. McKissick national director of CORE, charged Wednesday the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) is drastically curtailing funds for some community action programs.

In a public statement, the CORE leader said many programs dealing with "bedrock inequities" in the American system "are being ignored or shelved."

As examples, McKissick listed a number of programs in New York City considered minimal by neighborhood agencies, four target areas in San Francisco where local control is being discouraged and the proposal for community action education.
