TWO CITATIONS — Mrs. Eula Wims Brunson, 2317 Robb St., received a pay-grade increase for high-quality performance as secretary and a meritorious honor award for her noteworthy contribution to the success of the United States Information Agency's program. She is congratulated here by Leonard Marks, USIA director.

Conference set for churches in inner city

A conference on Christian Mission for the Inner-City and In-city churches will be held at St. James' Episcopal Church, Lafayette and Arlington Ave., on Saturday, Feb. 4, 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. sponsored by the Department of Evangelism of the Maryland Council of Churches.

The Conference will be open to all pastors and interested lay persons of the churches.

The key speakers will be the Rev. Harold Eads, East Harlem Protestant Parish, New York City; the Rev. Bruce Weaver, Reformation Lutheran Church, Washington, D. C., and the Rev. Robert D. Ball, director of research and planning for the Maryland Council of Churches.

Discussion groups with resource persons will consider many phases of the work of the city church in these changing times.—

The registration fee of $2.50 will include the noon meal and may be sent to the office of the Maryland Council of Churches.

The Rev. David Markey, chairman of the Department of Evangelism of the Maryland Council of Churches, feels this is a rich opportunity for all congregations that are searching for or experimenting with new programs to offer effective ministries to the people of their communities.

A&P you can't make a mistake at A&P

Ever pick up a "bargain" somewhere... only to discover later it wasn't a bargain at all?

Well, you'll never make a mistake like that at A&P. Because...

1. We don't sell "bargain" goods... only quality merchandise at thrifty prices.
2. We never misrepresent. Never.
3. Everything you buy at A&P is guaranteed to please. Everything.

So, you can even shop carelessly at A&P if you like. Of course you won't. But isn't it nice to know we take care for you. Because we care about you.

Is protection like this a good reason for shopping A&P?

It's one of many.
