Miss Esther Dove, Robert Frazier wed

Miss Esther Dove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frazier, was married to Mr. Edward Stems in [illegible] by Walker, organist, Wayland [illegible] and Mrs. Betty Johnson, Sunday afternoon [illegible] at [illegible]. The Rev. [illegible] officiated at the double ring ceremony. The program of music was [illegible] by Mr. Eugene Bailey, organist, and Mrs. Betty Johnson, soloist.

The BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite gown of peau de sole, embroidered with sequins, and with a matching coat which featured a chapel train.

Her White House viel was attached to a tiny bouquet and cascading buds which half framed her face. She carried white carnations.

The bridesmaids, Misses Vernette Dobbins and Theresa Satchell, also wore gowns of peau de sole and velvet, but in royal blue. why should we guarantee other people's products?

If we didn't, we couldn't honestly say WE CARE. Could we?

You see, before any product is allowed on our shelves, we've checked it out pretty carefully.

We've checked the company that makes it.
We've checked to be sure the product is all the package says it is.

If you ever buy anything at A&P you're not happy with, you don't have to bother to write a letter to the company that made it. Just tell your A&P store manager. He'll give you your money back. We'll get in touch with that company for you... and for us.

That's A&P's guarantee.
No matter who makes it, if A&P sells it, A&P guarantees it.

Not every store can offer you a guarantee like that. A&P can... and does. Shouldn't A&P be your store?
