A&P

say Dad... ever wonder how Mom got the money

Come Sunday morning, will you be one of the millions of fathers who are forever amazed?

Will you look at your new fishing reel or power tool or camera... and wonder:

"How did Mom get the money?"

You'll know she didn't rob a bank...and she didn't sell the car.

Maybe, just maybe, we can give you a hint.

Is Mom an A&P shopper?

Could it be that the savings she makes each week of the year add up to so much?

Why not ask her?

Before you do though, better take a quick look in the garage to make sure the car's still there.

2nd graders get exhibit on Indians

The second grade class of Mrs. Ellen C. Johns recently presented an exhibit on the Navajo Indians as a climax to their study of "children around the world."

The exhibit was on display at the Harlem Park Elementary School No. 35.

In addition to the exhibit, Mrs. Johns' class presented a program on the Navajo Indian for the other second graders in the school.

During the program, the 7 year olds sang Indian songs, read poems, and showed Navajo jewelry and decorations they made in class using tin foil and clay.

The highlight of the program was a talk and exhibit by Dr. Edgar Cahn and his sons, Jonathan and Reuben.

Dr. Cahn, a Washington D.C. attorney and former government worker, spoke about his trip to a Navajo reservation two years ago and showed some pieces from his collection of Navajo relics.

"To carry the project even further," Mrs. Johns commented, "the children wrote and received letters from Navajo children at the Chinle Boarding School in Arizona."

Mrs. Johns visited a Navajo reservation during a trip she made ten years ago.
