Just 28 years after the end of slavery, a black surgeon performed the first successful heart operation.

Old Taylor Presents: Ingenious Americans
Dr. Daniel Hale Williams (1858-1931)

1893. Memories of the Civil War were still fresh. Black Americans were just beginning to get used to the idea of freedom. Few of them were able to pursue a higher education.

But already some black Americans were reshaping not only their own country, but the world. Seventy-five years before an African Negro gave his heart for the first successful human-heart transplant, an American Negro performed the world's first successful heart operation.

It happened on a cold, windy night, when a knifing victim was rushed to Chicago's Provident Hospital. The wound was a fraction of an inch from the man's heart.

Under the medical conditions of 1893, the man was almost a sure goner. X-rays weren't yet discovered. Blood transfusions were practically unknown. There were no modern "miracle drugs."

Yet, with incredible skill, Dr. Williams attempted the long shot. And his patient became the first man to survive a heart operation.

Had it been any other hospital or any other surgeon, the man might have died within the hour. "Sewed up the human heart," headlined a Chicago newspaper.

That hospital operating room was a long way from the small frame house outside Pittsburgh where Daniel Williams was born. By the time he was twelve, his father had died and his mother had deserted.

Moving to Wisconsin, young Dan scraped enough money together barbering to put himself through a local academy. From there he went to Chicago, and with the help of a prominent family, he graduated from Northwestern Medical School.

Only eight years after graduation, Williams founded Provident Hospital, the first infirmary open to all patients and physicians, regardless of race or creed.

From Chicago, Dr. Williams was called to Washington to reorganize and head the Freedman's Hospital, then operated by the Federal Government. He organized Freedman's into departments, collected a staff of twenty specialists, and created the beginnings of a nursing school.

Under Williams' administration, this once-primitive institution, housed in pre-Civil War buildings, soon became the model for today's modern hospital.

Even without that historic heart operation, Dr. Williams would have been considered a great man. But that medical "first" put him into a very select class. The class of truly Ingenious Americans.

Would you like to own this handsome sculptured bust of Dr. D. H. Williams? It's 8" tall, made of antique bronze cast stone, and carries the complete Williams story. It costs $5.00 (which is what it costs us). Send check or money order to: Old Taylor, Box 4865S, Grand Central Station, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Birthday Tribute

JOHNSON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our beloved son, VERNON JOHNSON JR., on his birthday, September 10, who passed away April 18, 1963:
If we could have our fondest wish
The most wonderful in the world today
We would wrap it up in loving words
And send it on its way.
And when your birthday morn will dawn
We'll whisper soft and low
Please God, let us have our loved one back.
Because we miss him so.
MOM and DAD.

In Memoriams

BROWN — In loving memory of our beloved son and brother, ALPHANSO W. BROWN, who passed away September 10, 1967:
You're not forgotten, ALPHANSO dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.
Mother and Stepfather,
Mr. and Mrs. BOOKER HUSON
Sister,
MRS. ARVETA DIXON

BROWN — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, ALPHONSO W., who passed away September 9, 1967:
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband
One year ago today.
Loving Wife, JIMMIE
And CHILDREN

CANN — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, JAMES T. CANN, who passed away September 8, 1967:
If we had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your heart,
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had,
We did not see you die.
We only know you went far away
And never said goodbye.
WIFE AND CHILDREN

CRISP — In loving memory of our mother and grandmother WILLIE L. CRISP, who passed away June 10, 1963:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
Her weary hours, her days of pain,
Her weary nights are past;
Her ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
LOVING CHILDREN
And GRANDCHILDREN

SMITH — In loving memory of my dear son and our loved one, NORMAN SMITH, who passed away September 9, 1963:
You are always in our thoughts
No matter where we go,
Always in our hearts, dear son and loved one.
Because we loved you so.
MOTHER and FAMILY

WHEATLEY — In loving memory of my dear mother and our loved one, LETHA V. WHEATLEY, who passed away September 16, 1963:
A wonderful mother, woman and aide.
One who was better God never made;
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
One in a million — that, mother, was you.
Just in your judgment, always right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew,
Wonderful mother — that, mother, was you.
Your Son, ROLAND
And FAMILY
