J. B. BURR & CO., HAVE IN PRESS

Sunshine and Shadow IN NEW YORK,

BY

MATTHEW HALE SMITH,

(BURLEIGH.)

"To know the country to its farthest veins,
Find out its heart; there all its being tends;
The mighty mart threbs only with the pulses
Of the wide land, which pours its streams of life
And strength into its bosom."

In offering this work to the public, the Publishers gratulate themselves on having liberally supplied a want which has long been felt throughout the country.

As the Metropolitan Centre of the United States, New York City reflects all the good and evil of the land in their most intense forms,—To know New York well, is in a sense to know the whole country; and there is no man, however often he visits New York, or indeed no matter how long he may have resided there, who cannot learn from others something valuable to know regarding the city and its mighty interests.

THIS WORK WILL BE FOUND VALUABLE

To the old and frequent visitor to New York.

To the Merchant and Minister to any part of the country;

To the Student of Human Nature (and every one is more or less such;)

To the Lover of the Marvellous, and those who would know that facts often outrival the fancies of fiction;

To the Speculator—to the good and evil disposed;

To the Ambitious Money Maker, who would know how Fortunes are there made in honest and legitimate business, as well as by craftiness;

To those who, visiting New York City, would shun its pitfalls, and study it in their own homes without cost or danger, and yet learn all;

To every Philanthropist, Christian, and lover of Missionary Enterprises;

To, in short, every citizen of America, and every newly arrived emigrant as well.

CONDITIONS.

The Book will be printed from new Electrotype Plates, on good paper, and will be appropriately illustrated with 12 Full Page Engravings. It will contain over 700 closely printed Octavo Pages, and will be furnished to subscribers in neat and substantial bindings, at the following low prices, payable on delivery:

In Extra Fine English Cloth, Sprinkled Edges, $3.00

In Extra Fine English Cloth, Gilt Edges, 3.50

The work can be obtained through our distributing agents, and will be sold by subscription. [oct 17
