The applicant must either make oath, as heretofore, before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where he is engaged in business, of the amount of goods kept on hand at the principal season of sale, or the oath may be administered by a Justice of the Peace when the person wanting the License applies through an agent. If the latter course be adopted, the following form will be deemed a sufficient compliance with the act:

Talbot County to wit:

On this —— day of —— 1869, before the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for said county, personally appeared ——, and declared that he intends to apply for a trader's license, under the laws of the State, to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot county, and made oath that the amount of stock of goods generally kept on hand by him (or by the concern in which he is engaged, in case it is a partnership) at the principal season of sale, (or if the applicant has not previously engaged in such trade, that the amount of the stock of goods which he expects to keep, &c.,) does not (or will not,) exceed $

Sworn before, Justice of the Peace.

If the oath be administered by a Justice of the Peace out of the county in which the application is made, there must be attached the certificate of the Clerk of the county in which the Justice resides.

Vendors of License of females vending millinery &c., whose stock at any season of the year does not or will not exceed $500, be $6,50. If their stock does or shall exceed $500 the rates are the same as those of Traders' License, and the same form of application must be observed.

To the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot County:—We, the undersigned, freeholders of Talbot county, living in the immediate vicinity of ——, who is about to apply to you for a license to keep an Ordinary at ——, in said county, do hereby recommend him as a suitable person to obtain the license.

In addition he shall make oath to the Clerk of the rate of rent or annual value of the house or place at or in which the business to be authorized by the License may be done or is intended to be done. If the said rent or annual value does not exceed $100 the rate is $25 50

Every person or company who shall exhibit for a reward any animal or animals, or natural or artificial curiosities of any kind, (exceptmodels of useful inventions,) shall pay to the Clerk the sum of fifteen dollars for a License therefor for one year.

Each license shall contain a list of the personal performers, or animals, or other articles or things to be exhibited.

The owner or keeper of any stallion or jack shall, before being permitted to stand or sustain such animals, pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of some one of the counties in this State the highest sum which he intends to ask or receive for the season at one time, and the receipt of the said Clerk, with the seal of his Court attached thereto for said sum, shall be the License for stationing or standing such stallion or jack for one year from the date thereof: Provided, that in no case shall the sum directed to be paid by this section for such license be less than four dollars; and that every stallion or jack upon which the said tax is paid, shall be exempt from all other State tax.

NEW GOODS.

SOME people are very inquisitive. They say, "How is it I can sell so cheap?" What matters that to you? I don't steal the goods I have

High Rents, High Expenses, or a Fashionable Store,

I go to market myself and sell goods with small profits. That's all right; but I can't live on the profits fast enough.

They say, Here Sam is in a hurry, [illegible] some of those 6¼ or 14¼, or 25 cent Handkerchiefs, or cut the off end yards of that beautiful summer poplin at 35 cents, or a suit of that pretty Alpaca, of good strong patterns of that cheap 25 cent goods, or I'll take a yard of that 12½ cent calico through. Here's my [illegible] beautiful Bag w[illegible] up in a hurry.

Job had patience, but he never lined DRY GOODS.

The reason he was rich, he had nobody to pick the cents' worth out of the end of a piece of flannel and then ask him to take one cent [illegible]. The pieces I sell is made of the cheap summer flannels I have, also such magnificent Lawns, Cambrics, Jaconets imported from the foreign countries, and only 25 cents per yard, and the calicoes [illegible] down brought to this market. Delaines of all colors and descriptions, look at them and be your own judge.

SIXTEEN DRESSES FOR ONE LADY!

How do you suppose she is going to wear them all? Nothing in the world but my cheap goods ever induced her to buy them. Call and see them—you'll buy them too.

WHO CAN'T HAVE AN UNDER-SHIRT AND DRAWERS?

Under shirts 50, 60 and 90 cents, worth $1.25. Drawers 75 cents, worth $1.00.

Just received from New York at those low prices,

3567½ yards of Linen at 50 cents, worth 75 cents. 2687½ new style Calicoes, 6, 8, 10, 12½ cts., all fast colors except the G—and it wouldn't do for them to rub against a wash tub; let alone go inside. 15877 yards new style calicoes for 7 cents; they are cheap. 300 cambric Handkerchiefs at 12½ cents. 100 Balmorals from 90 cents and higher.

Have you seen the cheap Hoop Skirts?

Only 37½ cents, I guarantee every one, and just try me, see if I don't give you the money back if they don't suit, or a new one if a spring breaks.

But just like a Minister very disinterestedly I respectfully invite you all to call and see me and you will find my windows full with Dry Goods, and not but posters saying, "I sell cheap."

SHOES.—Children's Shoes, 25 cents and upwards.

Ladies' $1 and upwards.

Misses', from $1 25 and higher.

Boy's Shoes and Gaiters of all description.

But just walk inside and look around!

and you will soon see something you like, and you will say, I'll take, &c., &c.

And you'll go home with a smile, and your husband will smile, and when a happy time there will be over a lot of cheap Dry Goods from (mar 27) M. EMANUEL'S STORE.

FRESH Oranges and Lemons just received and for sale by BATEMAN & TRIPPE.

TO PAINTERS—Lewis' White Lead, Chinese Vermillion, Patent Dryer—with a full assortment of paints, Oils and Glass, just received and for sale at the drug store of BATEMAN & TRIPPE.
