Old people hurt by rising prices

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A special Senate report has disclosed that three out of every 10 Americans over the age of 65 are living in poverty.

And the situation, it said, will get worse as working people demand higher wages, forcing prices to levels the retirees cannot afford.

A four-man task force, which prepared the report for the Senate Committee on Aging, said older persons "now have proportionately less income, compared to persons still in the work force, than they did in 1961."

April is Keep Maryland Beautiful Month. Do you have a litter basket in your car? If not you can order one by call the Keep Maryland Beautiful Office. Telephone: 752-7702 or 752-7703.
