Lady correctional officer granted divorce

Mrs. Sonya Elliott, 1707 Freedom Way, a Baltimore City Jail correctional officer, was granted a divorce April 26 from her husband, William Edward Elliott, 2561 Cecil Ave., a Bethlehem Steel employee.

The decree was signed by Judge J. Gilbert Prendergast.

In testimony in Circuit Court 2, Mrs. Elliott stated she and her husband were married Aug. 26, 1956 and separated March 8, 1968 when she left.

She said previously her husband had struck and choked her and unable to take any more, she feared for her personal safety, health and self respect.

According to the husband who filed for the divorce, when he returned from the service, his wife was gone and he hasn't seen her since.

Judge J. Gilbert Prendergast signed the decree on April 22 after Mr. Lawton, a Bethlehem Steel employee, told the court he had not been able to get in touch with his wife in over 25 years.

Divorcees wife unheard of in last 25 years

Booker T. Lawton, 827 E. Cold Spring Lane, a pipe tester, and his wife, Mrs. Ossie Lee Orange Lawton, were married Aug. 27, 1945 during World War II and separated a year and three months later, in November, 1946, when he went into the Army.

VA announces mobile home loan program

The Veterans Administration recently announced standards for its mobile home program which guarantees up to 30 per cent of loans — up to a maximum of $10,000 for mobile homes, or up to $17,500 if the loan is also for a fully developed lot.

The VA has prescribed regulations to govern such items as mobile home sites, construction standards and written manufacturer's warranties.

There are also qualifications for mobile home park locations, basically the same as those for an average subdivision on which single family homes are built. They must have the same facilities, such as proper geographical locations, water, sewage, electricity, etc.

Applicants should obtain their certificates of eligibility from the nearest VA Regional Office, find a mobile home they like and which meets VA standards, settle details or rental or purchase of a mobile home lot and then apply to a lender for a loan.

Veterans and servicemen with at least 181 days of active service after January 31, 1955, are eligible for mobile home loans, as are veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict, who served more than 90 days, provided they have not previously used their home loan benefit.

So are veterans discharged for service-connected disabilities, regardless of length of service, widows of eligible veterans and wives of members of the Armed Forces missing in action or prisoners of war for more than 90 days.

Marriage of 31 years ends in divorce here

The marriage of 31 years of Mrs. Mary Charlotte Bond of Garrison Ave. and her husband, Joseph Bond, ended this week in divorce.

Judge J. Gilbert Prendergast signed the decree in Circuit Court No. 2 on April 26.

The couple was married May 15, 1940 in Bel Air, Churchville, Md., and separated April 22, 1958. The six surviving children of their family of nine are adults.
