George St. School ends summer program

By PAM WIDGEON

George Street Elementary School No. 30, 601 Brune St., is a very warm and lovable school. The AFRO visited their inner city classrooms last week to attend the closing exercise of the six-week summer school program.

When I entered the school, I was greeted by a very pleasant lady with a smile, Mrs. Rose Pino, the curriculum coordinator.

In the lobby of the school there are over 50 colorful paintings that were done by the parents and students who attend the school.

Mayor Schaefer was there to extend greetings and to compliment the students, faculty and parents on the beautiful art work that had been done.

* * *

Program director for the closing exercises was Mrs. Frances Bennett, who thought of the idea of having the mayor visit the school for encouragement.

The theme was "Know Your City."

Among some other activities that went on during the six weeks were a circus day; the cowboy and Indian day; a fashion show in which students, parents, and teachers participated and wore the clothing that they made.

Mrs. Lena C. Prettyman is summer school principal.

Among those guest speakers and teachers on the program were Mrs. Jacqueline Westmoreland, Mrs. William Parrot Jr., Malcolm Johnson, Mrs. Delores Dorsey, Mrs. Florence Bailey, Mrs. Mary Carter, Mrs. Leah Hasty, Mrs. Peggy Scott, Miss Susan Tallerico, and Mrs. Margaret Wright.

Also Mesdames Sarah Harrod, Shirley Hayes, Katherine Carrington, Alfreda Hightower, Gloria Barnes, Charlotte Polson, Dorothy Wallace, Edna Wills, Misses Katie Banks, and Linda Adams.

Mrs. Florence Bailey was elementary supervisor.

Ministers wives, active workers

The Baptist Ministers Wives Alliance of Baltimore and Vicinity met August 10 to discuss the activities the group has participated in during the year.

They attended a workshop on "The role of a minister's wife" held by the Annual Church Wide Institute at First Baptist Church, Caroline and McElderry Sts. The instructor for the workshop was Mrs. Felicia Adams.

Members of the alliance have also enjoyed a Mothers and Daughters Tea at Simmons Memorial Baptist Church, headed by Mrs. Roberta Williams and Mrs. Ernestine Hill.

The Social chairmen, Mrs. Mary Brown and Mrs. Sarah Fleming served a delicious repast. The fashions shown were a beautiful addition to a lovely evening.

In addition, one of the founders of the alliance, Mrs. Portia Yerby was presented a gift by the group.

The ministers wives have also attended a dinner theatre in Columbia City, where they saw "My daughter and your son."

The highlights of the year for the ladies was a trip to Denver, Colorado where they were part of a convention of the National Association of Ministers Wives.

Those attending the convention were Mesdames Jerdyn Stewart, Ernestine Hill, Roberta Williams, Katheryn Brown, Chestina Nance, Thelma Culp, Leola M. O'Neal, Mattie Perkins and Mary Brown.

Berlin, Germany. 1936. The Olympic Games with 120,000 people in the stadium.

Jesse Owens, a young athlete from Ohio State, wins the 100-meter dash, the first of four gold medals he was to win in the 1936 Olympic games. It is a Great Olympic Moment!

The history of the Olympic Games is filled with such moments—Bob Mathias, Don Schollander, Johnny Weissmuller, Peggy Fleming, and many more. And now many of these moments have been captured in a distinguished collection of 17 commemorative medals offered to you by Bottlers of Coca-Cola.

Limited Offer

Each of the 17 medals is a beautiful, enduring commemoration of an Olympic triumph. Struck by The Franklin Mint, the world's foremost private mint, in your choice of aluminum...solid bronze..., or solid sterling silver.

The aluminum medals are struck with an excellent mint-quality finish and come ready for mounting on a special die-cut board suitable for framing. The bronze and silver medals are struck with softly frosted relief against a mirror-like background. The bronze medals come with a protective, transparent display case complete with walnut base for table top display, while silver medals come with a handsome walnut collector's chest complete with plastic cover to protect the medals from dust and tarnish.

With every set of medals you will receive a colorful booklet giving historical details, facts, figures and photographs of the great athletes featured on the medals.

Your family will treasure this collection for generations. But, to acquire it, you must act now. This offer is good for a limited time only and the dies for the designs of these medals will be destroyed after this offer expires.

Net Proceeds go to the United States Olympic Fund to Help Send Our Athletes to the 1972 Olympic Games.
