IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR HOWARD COUNTY, MAY TERM, 1862.—EMANUEL W. EICHELBERGER et al. vs. HENRY TIMBERLAKE.—The object of this suit is to obtain a decree for the sale of certain leasehold property in Howard county for the purpose of satisfying a mortgage. The bill states that a certain Henry Timberlake, of the State of Virginia, being indebted unto a certain William Allen, of Howard county, in the sum of nine hundred and twenty-five dollars current money, for which sum he gave his seven promissory notes, bearing even date, and intending to secure the payment of said notes, the said Henry Timberlake did, by his deed of 5th day of October, 1853, convey unto the said William Allen and his heirs, certain leasehold property situated in Howard county, in or near Ellicott's Mills, and particularly described in said deed, to which said deed there is a condition annexed, that it be void on payment by the said Henry Timberlake to the said William Allen or order the aforesaid sum of money or promissory notes, and the said William Allen assigned all his interest in said promissory notes to Emanuel W. Eichelberger and John Allen and Henrietta Allen, his wife, the complainants in this cause, and that Henry Timberlake resides out of the State of Maryland, and the bill prays that a sale of said leasehold property may be decreed by the Court, and the proceeds distributed among the parties interested in proportion to their respective interests.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Baltimore city, once in each of four successive weeks before the first day of September next, to give notice to the absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warn him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the first day of September next, to answer the premises and show cause why, if any he has, a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
