BALTIMORE.

TUESDAY, JULY 29, 1862.

From the N. Y. Times, July 28.

THE NEW MUSTER OF TROOPS—WHAT SHALL BE DONE?

It is a month since President Lincoln issued his proclamation calling for a fresh muster of three hundred thousand men. What proportion of that force is now under arms? Is there a half of it? Is there a single hundred thousand? Is there fifty thousand the whole country over? What proportion of it has been sent forward to reinforce the army of Gen. McClellan? Has there been twenty-five thousand men? Has there been ten thousand? We do not doubt, that since the battles of last month, Gen. McClellan has been strengthened by more than ten thousand new soldiers; for a great part of our forces in both the Carolines, under Gens. Burnside and Hunter, has left those States and come forward to reinforce him; and detachments have also been sent him from other columns of our army. But of the new levy of volunteers, we fear that he has not yet seen, nor is likely for some time to see, the faces of half a dozen regiments.

To come at once close home, we would ask, what has this great State of New York, with a free population of close upon four millions of souls, yet done? Have we, after the lapse of a month, sent forward our first regiment? When, at the present rate of recruiting, shall we have twenty thousand men, not to speak of our quota of sixty thousand, in the field? What has this metropolis of New York, with its population bordering upon a million, yet done in the matter? Will the muster-rolls exhibit one-quarter of its quota? We know that some of the newspaper reporters, judging from local and exceptional facts, have represented recruiting as quite brisk—as indeed on some days and at some offices it has been. But there can be no need of denying that, on a general survey of the field, and an accurate estimate of the results, recruiting is dull enough, and does not give prospect of reaching such activity as to furnish our quota of the new levy in any reasonable time. We of this city have not one regiment near ready to go forward, and we have not yet sent a single man to fill up the thinned ranks of the regiments now in the field.

Throughout New England there is more activity, and some of the Western States are doing their duty. But even in New England—aye, even in our patriotic neighbor State of Connecticut—we have heard of towns that have raised more thousands of dollars for bounties to recruits than they have raised recruits. And take it in general, the country over, there is great holding back on the part of the fighting element, and a practical apathy in regard to the tremendous crisis now upon the nation.

Bounties and donations of money have been offered to volunteers in profusion. Almost everywhere a man is furnished with quite a small fortune before he enlists, and all his wants and the wants of his family provided for thereafter. In this city it would be useless to offer any further inducement. The increased bounty proffered by Governor Morgan has not produced an increase of volunteers. In fact, the propriety or value to the cause, of the great rewards offered in some quarters, may well be doubted.

As the Boston Commercial Bulletin of last week remarked, in writing on this topic: "If this country is worth saving, it is worth saving upon its own merit, not because so much will be paid for people to volunteer and fight." We are almost ashamed to write in this way on this topic; for we all know that it is neither on account of lack of patriotism nor pluck that men do not come forward and join the ranks with promptitude. Into the various causes we do not care to enter. They are all irrelevant or secondary at present. The fact that there is abundant peaceful employment for all—the fact that the crops must be gathered—the fact that some are not satisfied with the conduct of the war—all sink before the great fact of the country's peril.

It will not do to let another month pass away with as meagre results as have been exhibited this month. If the present method of raising the armies needed, prove unsatisfactory and slow, there must be a draft.

FROM WASHINGTON.

From the Washington Star of Yesterday.

Rebel Secession sympathizers were not wanting, however, to be disappointed by the arrival of the Octorara, from New Orleans, on the 17th ultimo. She came into Hampton Roads, where she immediately proceeded on to this city. According to his report made to the Navy Department, on the 24th inst. he captured, after an exciting chase, the British iron screw steamer Tubal Cain, in latitude 31 deg. 50 min. north, longitude 78 deg. 23 min. west. She was then steering northwest by north for the port of Charleston. She sailed from Nassau, N. P., on Sunday, the 20th July instant, in company with two other steamers, all loaded with arms and munitions of war; and if not intercepted, the others are, by this time, safe in port. The evidence against the Tubal Cain is very clear, the fact that she is loaded with munitions of war and was steering for Charleston, being sufficient to condemn her. There is, however, much other corroborative evidence that her errand was to run the blockade. She had not broken bulk at Nassau leaving Europe in April last, and had been waiting for a month at Nassau to run the blockade. Her cargo is very valuable, being, it is understood, almost entirely of arms and munitions of war. The captain tried to run her ashore to save her, but was taken with thirty tons of it still on board. Capt. Porter sent her to New York for condemnation.

ORDER BY GEN. SIGEL.

Headquarters First Corps Army of Virginia,
(Formerly belonging to Mountain Dept.)
SPERRYVILLE, Va., July 19, 1862.

The commanding General of this corps orders that all commissioned officers and enlisted men, whose leave of absence has expired, and all convalescents who are able to join their regiments shall immediately rejoin their respective regiments, battery or detachment, by way of Washington city, D. C., or they will be considered deserters and dealt with accordingly.

All recruits enlisted for this corps should be sent at once by way of Washington city to their regiments or batteries.

By command of Major General F. Sigel,

T. A. MEYSENBURG,
Assistant Adjutant General.

Special Despatches to the New York Herald.

THE VISIT OF GEN. HALLECK TO THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC—DEVOTION OF THE ARMY TO GENERAL McCLELLAN.

General Halleck, accompanied by General Burnside, returned to-day from his visit to General McClellan and the Army of the Potomac. The meeting between Generals Halleck and McClellan was very cordial, and the former expresses himself delighted with the condition in which he found the Army of the Potomac after its recent ordeal of fire, carnage and death. It was evident that its commander had not overrated it in any particular. It was plain that General McClellan will never be willing to separate himself from an army so devoted to him, and that he cannot be taken from it without completely demoralizing it and destroying its usefulness. General Halleck has now provided himself with all the information necessary for making up his programme of active operations, which will be completed without delay. One thing is certain. It is intended that from this hour our military shall move right onward to a conclusion of this domestic strife by the entire reduction of the rebellion.

THE WAR TO BE PROSECUTED WITH ENERGY AND VIGOR.

Brigadier General White, one of the most prominent heroes of Pea Ridge and other battles in Missouri and Arkansas, is about to be assigned to a command in the army of General Pope. It is likely that he will soon make his mark at the head of a division here, as he did at the head of a brigade in the West. There are evidences that under the new dispensation the war is about to be prosecuted with unparalleled vigor. A disposition is manifested to overlook all other considerations, except ability and energy. The President is selecting men of action and not of words or political influence for every important position.

From the New York World, July 28.

The news from the West is not pleasant. The absence of Gens. Halleck and Mitchell has been taken advantage of by the Confederates to break through our lines on the Mobile and Charleston road, and commit great havoc on the military stores located at various points. Florence, Ala., has been taken, with the troops that guarded it, and the Confederates have penetrated even to the historic region in the neighborhood of Pittsburg Landing, capturing troops and stores and destroying vast quantities of valuable government property. The prospect is not very promising at the West. There are troops enough, but now that Gen. Halleck is east there is no good organizing head, and the more enterprising subordinate generals cannot move without orders. We fear that the news from the West will be worse before it is better.

THE MANUFACTURE OF GOVERNMENT ARMS.—The Armory in Springfield, Mass., makes 14,000 stand of arms a month. In a short time that establishment, with the five private shops in operation there, will be able to manufacture 35,000 guns per month. The Armories at Providence, Hartford, Trenton, Bridesburgh, Vt., Ilion, and one or two other places, will each be able to furnish the Government with 200 guns per day. In a few months we shall be making first-rate arms, better than the best Europe can afford, at the rate of 600,000 per annum. It is universally conceded by those who are competent to form a correct judgment, that there is nothing on the other side of the Atlantic that can compare with the American arm.—New York Tribune.

OHIO WHEAT CROP.—The wheat crop has just been gathered in the Miami country, and for the most part, throughout the State. It is the best and largest crop of wheat produced in Ohio since 1850. The crop of that year was the largest ever grown in the State, and the largest average per acre. It is probable that the crop of this year will be equal in amount to that. The crop of 1850 was 31,500,000 bushels. That of this year may safely be put down at 30,000,000.

S. T.—1860.—X.—Sure enough, as we predicted, these cabalistic signs again made their appearance at the great MASS Meeting in Monument Square, and were received with shouts of applause by the immense multitude. At precisely half past eight, while the meeting was in full blast, and amid the whizzing of rockets and the bursting of bombs, a beautiful transparency was shown in many colored fires, bearing the following inscription: "S. T.—1860. DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS CURES DYSPEPSIA." The immense sale and popularity that these well known Bitters have obtained among us in so short a time, is the best proof of their merit. They are prepared with pure St. Croix Rum, Calisaya bark, &c., and should be found upon the side-board of every family. The balloon let off at the close of the meeting bearing the same inscription as above, had the designed effect. 1t

S.—T.—1860—X.

Thousands of persons in this city arise in the morning with headache, feeling languid, unrefreshed, feverish, low-spirited, weak, and incapacitated to perform any mental or physical duty. They sit down to their morning meal with little or no appetite, and from which they arise and go about their business only to pass a miserable and unhappy day.

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS will positively overcome all of these effects, and a wine glass full taken three times a day will impart tone and cheerfulness to the whole system. These Bitters are prepared with pure St. Croix Rum, Calissya Bark, &c. They are the most delicious and effectual Tonic in the world, and should be found upon the side-board of every family. Sold by all the principal Druggists and Grocers in Baltimore. Depot 202 Broadway, New York. Jy29 2t

SEVENTY MILES SAVED IN GOING TO CAPE MAY. We would say to persons visiting Cape May, that by laying over in Wilmington, instead of going on to the city of "Brotherly Love," they can save seventy miles of travel, and have their baggage taken care of by a responsible person, thereby securing a night's rest. After partaking of an excellent breakfast at the Indian Queen Hotel Fifth and Market streets, they can take the cars at 9.30 A. M. for Newcastle, and arrive there at 12 M. for the boat.

THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS PARTIALLY RESTORED.—After an involuntary absence of about three months, during which time we were made familiar with the classic and once hallowed grounds of Fort McHenry—we again resume, partially, our old vocation of "enlightening the world with lamp-black." OUR Press, being deemed dangerous by the Government, has been kindly limited, and, for the future, instead of publishing "THE SOUTH, or any other paper, without consent of the Commanding General," we shall modestly labor in the humbler department of the "art preservative of all arts," by executing every description of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING, hoping through that medium to sus ain ourselves and those dependent upon us, and would earnestly appeal to our friends to favor us with their patronage. We have prepared our Job PRINTING DEPARTMENT to execute all kinds of printing neatly, expeditiously and cheaply, and solicit a call at our old buildings.

GEO. PEARSON, Esq.

Dear Sir—I feel it a duty to express to you my sincere acknowledgements of the benefit derived from the use of a package of your MEDICATED TAR DROPS.

I was suffering with a SEVERE COUGH and SORE THROAT, when a friend presented me with a package of your celebrated TAR DROPS, and when I used them, I was free to confess it was more to gratify my appetite for sweetmeats than the idea of deriving any good from them; but really, the rapid allaying of the irritation and subsequent entire cure of the cough, induces me to thank you, and I take great pleasure in recommending to the public so effective a compound. Respectfully yours, J. E. SMITH, M. D.,

GUANO WORKS COR. LANCASTER AND WOLF STS.

We are prepared to furnish to the farmers of Maryland and adjoining States, our well KNOWN and ESTABLISHED

PHOSPHO PERUVIAN (or Manipulated) GUANO,
WARRANTED ONE-HALF PERUVIAN GUANO.

Seven years' use of this Guano has rendered it a staple fertilizer. Its quality has been maintained with rigid exactness for such a series of years, and it may be relied upon in the future, as in the past, or in quantity of effect. It contains MORE AMMONIA and HIGHER GRADE OF LIME THAN ANY FERTILIZER SOLD IN THIS COUNTRY, and is therefore the greater fertilizer. Experience proves its great utility in improving the soil, while its immediate effects are fully equal to the best Peruvian Guano. It is the most convenient, economical and permanent fertiliser in use.

We also offer to consumers

REESE & CO'S
SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

This article is tried and reliable. It is manufactured exclusively for our sales under guarantee and forfeiture of $1,00 to be of given standard. We offer it to consumers for exactly what it name imports, a REAL SUPER OR SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE, rendered so by the liberal use of acid, in compliance with all the conditions required to insure complete solubility. We therefore recommend this article with confidence.

SOMBRERO GUANO,
Containing 75 to 80 per cent. Bone Phosphate of Lime.

This remarkable article is imported from SOMBRERO ISLAND, and is unquestionably the cheapest and richest source of the phate of lime known. The whole Island is a bed of this rich material, and its value to Agriculture cannot be over-estimated. It is sold in a perfectly fine powder, and is admirably adapted for combining with PERUVIAN GUANO. Jy23 1m
