HIBERNIAN SOCIETY—Of Baltimore.

NOTICE. All those members of this Society, who are still in arrear for their ANNUAL CONTRIBUTION, are earnestly requested to pay the same to the Collector, when called upon, as in consequence of the heavy demands for relief during the present winter, caused by the early inclemency of the season, the funds in the hands of the Treasurer have been nearly exhausted. As there are many subscribers, whose residence could not be found by the Collector, it is requested that all who see this notice, and are conscious of not having paid (and there are a great many who have been delinquent for the last two years) will please to send the amount of their contributions to the subscriber, without further delay, and thereby save to the Society the collection commission of thirty cents on each annual subscription.

TO THE PUBLIC.

IT must be obvious to every one, that an Intelligence Office, when conducted under proper principles, and regulated upon an honest and equitable footing, is of great convenience and utility to the citizens of a populous and thriving city like this. The subscriber, being aware of this fact, and with the knowledge that a degree of dissatisfaction has existed from the manner in which other offices of the kind have been heretofore conducted, he has therefore taken great pains to conduct his establishment in such a manner as to deserve public confidence, and be worthy of the public patronage.

PERSONS making application at this office for servants, or help of any other kind, will deposit, in advance, 50 cents each, for which they will have access to the records, properly kept for that purpose, and on which they find the names, residences, references, &c. of the servants or other help—in case that neither of them answers the desired purpose, the money will be returned. Yearly subscriptions received at $1.50 each.

AGENCY. HOUSES, FARMS, VACANT LOTS, GROUND RENTS, LANDS, &c. bought and sold on commission. SLAVES, for life or a term of years, bought or sold on commission, and the highest prices obtained. Persons having Slaves, which they wish to dispose of, will do well to apply at this office before selling.

N. B. All letters addressed to this office (post paid) thankfully received and promptly attended to.

HANCE'S Compound Syrup of Horehound.

CERTIFICATE. Mrs. WILLIAMS, of Petersburg, Va. caught a very severe cold last fall, and thinking it would wear off in the course of time itself, neglected it to a very great extent. Finding, however, it did not leave her, she then tried various remedies, some of which subdued the cough in a measure, but none effectually cured it.

About a month ago, her husband thought she had better try a change of air, so she came to Baltimore, where she first became acquainted with the COMPOUND SYRUP OF HOREHOUND—the first bottle produced such relief, that before she had finished it she determined to purchase two bottles and return home. Price 56 cents per bottle.

Prepared and for sale by SETH S. HANCE,
