use every exertion to have such by-laws repealed as exclude directors from having access to all knowledge of the Bank.

If I understand the intention of such law, it is, that directors must not know the amount of individual deposites. This itself is sufficient to destroy the Bank, if the cashier should be so disposed.

We notice the cashier of the Schuylkill Bank had passed his receipt for a deposite of $75,000, without making an entry on the Bank books, which shows the necessity of a rigid watchfulness on the part of directors; and experience teaches us, that men who mean to take advantage, find it their policy to be unusually friendly, and honest men have nothing to conceal.

I wou'd like to have an account of what is the true situation of this Bank, and the cause of its stock being so low, and why no dividend was made. Any thing on this subject, either in confidence or otherwise, would be considered as a favor.

With esteem, yours, &c.,
fe9-1t (Signed) JAMES DICKEY.

LOTTERIES.

STATE ARMORY
AND TOWN HALL LOTTERY.

☞ It is due to the citizens of Baltimore that they should be fully apprized of the combination openly at work to crush this project; and that the means and agents employed in the accomplishment of so illiberal a purpose may be nakedly exposed, a brief narrative of the facts are respectfully submitted to a discerning public. The want of a spacious Town Hall in our city suggested to some of our spirited fellow-citizens the feasibility of supplying so great a desideratum by the aid of the lottery system. It was thought that, inasmuch as the universally admitted evil of the lottery system was forced upon the people of the State, that it was but just that some benefit should be made to result to our own community from it—so that if the law to license lotteries could not be repealed, that the city of Baltimore, whose people were subjected to the system, were at least entitled to, and ought to enjoy from its avails, the benefit of some public improvement.

The Town Hall Lottery was accordingly projected, a grant from the General Assembly obtained, and authority had from the corporation to use the site of the present Hanover market place, as a suitable location of the contemplated spacious edifice. In obedience to the law, the individuals appointed to manage the lottery submitted their schemes to the State Lottery Commissioners, which were approved; and unwilling to await the tedious delay of the sale of the tickets themselves, the commissioners effected a sale of twelve schemes to D S. Gregory & Co. large lottery contractors to the eastward, for which they received several thousands of dollars. These being all drawn, to the surprise of the Town Hall Lottery Commissioners, no further admissible proposition would be made for the further purchase of schemes, and the broad ground was openly taken by these foreign monopolists of Maryland Lotteries, that the Town Hall Commissioners should neither sell to any body else, nor draw themselves, their Lottery, authorized by the General Assembly of Maryland—and to consummate this outrage upon the rights of the Town Hall Lottery Commissioners, and in this way to crush the purpose of erecting a spacious Town Hall in the city of Baltimore, an edict was issued through their agents in this city, forbidding all the Lottery Brokers, licensed by the State of Maryland, to sell the Town Hall Lottery Tickets, under pain of cutting off their supply of tickets in other Lotteries—hoping, by this lever, to effect the entire overthrow of the Town Hall Lottery, or coerce its Commissioners to put its schemes into their hands at their own price, and upon their own terms, or give up the project. In this aspect of affairs, nothing has been left to the Town Hall Lottery Commissioners, but to open an office, and sell their own tickets, and to appoint their own agents; since the regular Lottery dealers, whom they would gladly have employed, are, under pain of being broken up, prohibited from selling Town Hall tickets. These are the facts, and in view of them, an indignant and enlightened community, will not be in vain, it is confidently believed, invoked to crush so iniquitous a combination. Agents are appointed by the Commissioners in every part of the city, and the public are earnestly recommended, when they buy Lottery Tickets, to ask for Town Hall Tickets—and to buy none other.

Published by order of the Commissioners,
JAMES H. COX.

☞ The next Town Hall Lottery will be drawn on THURSDAY, 11th inst. Capitals—1 of $12,000; 100 of $1,000. Tickets $5—Halves $2.50—Quarters $1.25.

A CARD.

To the Stockholders of the Western Bank.

☞ A report being in circulation that the presentation of a new ticket of Directors for the Western Bank has for its object the removal of the present executive officers of that institution, the committee on the part of the stockholders offering this ticket, deem it proper to give this public assurance to the voters that no such intention has ever been entertained by them, but that their aim is simply to examine the concerns of the Bank, and all other proceedings are to depend upon the manner in which they find its affairs to have been conducted. Far from any feeling of hostility towards its present officers, the gentlemen composing the new ticket will be most happy to be justified in re-electing them to their places.

This occasion is taken to notice another report which is in existence and which intimates that the movement for reform has its impulse in the wish of certain of the new directors to open to themselves a source of Bank facilities. To silence this attack the committee beg to state that they are authorized by each and every one of the new directors—those who have been in the direction of the Bank—to give a pledge to stockholders that not one of them will ever ask for the discount of a single dollar while he remains a director of the institution, nor will the firm of which he may be a member make any such application, but that, so far as the new names are concerned, the means of the Bank shall be only used for the accommodation of its regular customers.

The committee in giving this pledge venture to add that a similar assurance with regard to the ticket to be offered by the administration side, will, they have no doubt, be acceptable to stockholders. fe12 d
