m27-tf THOS. FINLEY, P. M.

MARRIED,

On the 6th inst. by the Rev. C. B. Tippett, PHILIP MACKEY to Miss MARY C. daughter of the late GAZAWAY WATKINS, all of this city.

On the same day, by the same, PHILEMON S. CHALMERS to CATHARINE A. WILHELM, all of this city.

At Washington, on the 7th inst. Lieut. A. A. HOLCOMB, of the U. S. Navy, to SARAH M. eldest daughter of George Watterson, esq. of Washington.

DIED,

On the 1st inst. STEPHEN J. VICKERY, aged about 17 years. Within a brief period of this early close of his prospects and hopes, the deceased had been placed in a mercantile house in this city, where, by his attention in the path of his destined pursuit, and the exhibition of an intelligence uncommon at his years, his friends were flattered to indulge in the most promising expectations—

"But ah! fell Death's untimely frost,
That nipt the flower sae early."

All that now remains with them is the recollection of his many virtues, which, whilst memory holds her seat, the hand of time cannot efface, nor the shadows of death obscure.

On Saturday, 5th inst. in the 64th year of his age, MOSES STILES, of this city.

BANK VAULT of the Source'eress Cash Grabber—Showing how the Source'eress did keep the noble knight St. Dollar, and his brothers in arms, the Coins of Christendom, within her vaults for five years.

Smoky Scuttle benighted—Song "The Banks break Specie and I break Coal."

Cash Grabber's vengeance—Smoky turned to a cent.

SECRET BANK BOOK—And how the Source'eress did show St. Dollar the rise, fall, and miserable end of those who dared to dispute the right of Banks to issue worthless Shinplasters.

[Chorus and Dance of the Cents.]

Enchanted Hall of Shinplasters—where were confined the six coins of Cashendom—the arming of St. Dollar by the Source'eress.

'Tis thy armor, forged of the cash of twenty broken banks,
No ball, nor bowie knife can pierce it,
Here is thy sword-cane—'twas made by DAFFIN.

Source'eress' Doom:

"Dumbness shall be thy portion, till the race of Shinplasters be run.

Shaving of the Source'eress.

Releasing of the six coins of Cashendom, and their departure from the halls of Shinplasters on Arabian steeds, richly caparisoned—made for this occasion.

Chorus—"Sound the bright harmonious cash."

Song—Dinah, 'De bad time of year is coming, coming.'

The Coins discovered grinding their knives and axes. Departure of St. Dollar in a Magnificent Steamboat.

BANKS OF THE SPOIL,

And how all the land drooped under the breath of the Monster Rag'on.

TRUSTEES SALE of valuable real estate in the city of Baltimore. By virtue of a decree of the Chancery Court of Maryland, the undersigned as Trustee, will expose to sale at auction on WEDNESDAY, the ninth day of June next, commencing at 9 o'clock, A. M. on the premises

ALL THAT VALUABLE PROPERTY heretofore conveyed by William Russell to the trustees for the poor of Baltimore City and County, by indenture bearing date on or about the fifteenth day of June seventeen hundred and ninety-two, and recorded amongst the land records of Baltimore County Court in liber W. G., No. K. K., folio 4 &c., and which in said deed is described as follows, viz—Beginning for the same at the intersection of Biddle and Price sts.," and on the west side of said Biddle street, and running and bounding on the west side of said Biddle street north forty-four degrees, east forty eight perches and the half of a perch, then north fifty two and one half degrees, west thirty four perches to a parcel of ground heretofore sold to a certain William Gibson by the said William Russell, then running and bounding on said ground south forty four degrees, west forty four perches to Price street, then bounding on said street south easterly thirty four perches to the place of beginning, containing nine acres and one half of an acre and thirteen square perches of land more or less.

The above property adjoins the Rose Hill estate and is in the neighborhood of the outer Depot of the Baltimore and Susquehana Rail Road; it lies beyond the limits of direct taxation and is exempt from the payment of City Taxes; the whole property will be divided into a large number of Lots of such dimensions as will enable those of moderate means to become purchasers. Madison street, which forms its Southern boundary, has been well paved along its entire front and beyond, and has been built upon up to Biddle st., which forms the Eastern Boundary, Morris Alley, Gibson street, Jordan Alley, and Gordon street, pass thro' it from east to west. A better opportunity than the present rarely occurs either for investment or speculation, especially when the very liberal terms of payment are taken into consideration.

The terms of sale prescribed by the decree are that the purchasers shall pay one-sixth cash, one sixth in ninety days, one-sixth in six months, one-sixth in nine months, one-sixth in twelve months, and one-sixth in fifteen months from the day of sale, the credit instalments to be secured by notes with one or more sureties to be approved by the Trustee and to bear interest from the day of sale.
