An elegant beginning for the New Year

Not everyone is inclined to go partying on New Year's Eve. For some, New Year's Day is the time to celebrate, and a late morning brunch gets the festivities off to happy start.

By New Year's, many people like to get away from the rich, heavy foods traditionally enjoyed during the preceding weeks.

So light, refreshing dishes, elegantly served, make up the ideal menu.

Florida Brunch Crepes make a beautiful holiday entree. They're filled with fresh orange sections, shrimp and toasted almonds in an herbed orange sauce — marvelous combination of flavors and textures.

The orange sauce also serves as the topping for the filled crepes.

Serve the Florida Brunch Crepes from a crepe pan to keep them warm and to add a touch of elegance to the occasion.

A fresh, green Grapefruit Caesar Salad with sprightly citrus dressing is a delicious go-together with the crepes.

Fresh grapefruit sections make this a juicy and extra special salad, in addition to providing natural vitamin C.

Orange Fritters for dessert make for light, delicate eating after the meal. They're falvored with orange juice and rind and are quick and easy to prepare.

Make yours a happy New Year's Day with family and favorite friends and enjoy these holiday dishes.
