Hints For Homemakers/Inez Kaiser

Give greasy stains your 'all' in 1980

DEAR INEZ: One of my New Year's resolutions was to keep my home as clean as possible, but I've got real problems. I just can't seem to remove oily stains from my table linens. My favorite tablecloth is still splattered with gravy and ketchup stains. The laundry detergent I've been using hasn't helped much—and it's too costly to replace linens at today's prices. What should I do? BAFFLED HOMEMAKER

DEAR BAFFLED HOMEMAKER: There is no better time than the present to set a new start in learning how to get the guest out of your laundry detergent. And the first thing you should do is to start using new improved CONCENTRATED "all," which is especially effective in removing tough, greasy, oily dirt as well as gravy and ketchup stains.

In fact, you will find that CONCENTRATED "all" outdoeans other leading powders on tough greasy, oil stains—and it's also effective in all water temperatures—hot, warm or cold.

To increase the efficiency of your detergent, follow these helpful laundry hints: Sort your wash by color, fabric and amount of soil. Wash non-colorfast items separately.

Pour CONCENTRATED "all" into the washing machine as it fills with water, before adding the clothes. This allows the detergent to dissolve easier. Remember, CONCENTRATED "all" helps keep your modern colors and fabrics—even tough-to-clean polyester—looking clean, bright and fresh.

THICK AND RICH SYRUP SWEETENS YOUR MEALS

IT IS VERY IMPORTANT to start your day off right. That means eating a tasty nutritional breakfast every day. Pancakes and waffles are ideal foods to serve on these cold mornings, along with French toast.

To add further zest and taste appeal to the meal, just top these dishes off with MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S Syrup. The Kaiser family prefers MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S because it is thicker than the leading syrup and tastes so good.

The thick, rich taste of this buttered syrup is also delicious in other ways. For example, you can substitute MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S for sugar in hot cereal for a taste-tempting change. With some fruit juice and hot chocolate, this makes a hearty, warming breakfast for cold mornings.

MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S can also be used to good advantage in your favorite recipes. Chill MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S in the refrigerator for a fabulous topping for ice cream desserts. Top fruit salads with a refreshing salad dressing of 1-2 tablespoons of MRS. BUTTERWORTH'S Syrup stirred into 1 cup of sour cream.

This rich, buttered syrup is great in main dishes, such as a quick sweet-sour sauce for spareribs.

IT'S EASY TO BRUSH AWAY BAD BREATH

IN THIS HEALTH AND BEAUTY-conscious world, everyone seems concerned with appearance and they should be. Faced with career decisions, meeting new people or making a good impression in social situations, we are all keenly aware of the importance of fresh, clean breath and bright, white teeth.

That's where CLOSE-UP comes in. CLOSE-UP is a true two-in-one product. It's a toothpaste with real mouthwash to freshen your breath and get your teeth as white as they can be.

This gel toothpaste is available in clear red or mint green flavors. Both versions provide the cleaning effectiveness of a toothpaste and the breath-freshening qualities of a mouthwash in a single grooming step.

Look for the new Super Size tube of CLOSE-UP on your grocer's or druggist's shelf. It gives you 6.2 ounces of super-whitening toothpaste and mouthwash in one.
