to the person to whom he sells it.

But before Mrs Nelson buys the above Land or any part of it from Mr. Elliott I must be satisfied that Mrs. Harris had a good title in fee simple clear of all encumbrances to the above Land.

- At ~~again~~ ~~before~~ before Mrs Nelson does buy the Land. It must be surveyed and the true location and quantity of it must be ascertained.

Again Mrs Nelson must go over the Land and ascertain its quality, and the quantity of ~~the~~ ~~land~~ ~~and~~ the buildings and improvements on it and to be certain that the Land will in all respects suit her convenience and is worth the money she proposes to give for it. If Mrs Nelson chooses to purchase that part of the Land wherein the Dwelling house &c is built she must ascertain ^{as well as she can} ^{she wants with the House &c.} the quantity of Land. She desires to buy and as she offers $10 dollars per acre for 100 or 105 acres when the residue of 100 acres is not worth less than 10 dollars per acre and how much per acre of the 105 acres she will be willing to give

To Mrs Eliza Nelson

Payne filed a Bill in Chancery agt Catherine Mann for a decree for the sale of the above land to discharge the mortgage debt: a decree passed and Josiah Pennington Esq appointed Trustee by the decree, sold the above land at Public Sale to Jacob Albert. The sale under the decree has been enforced through Mr Albert is the sole owner of the land and can after he obtains the deed from the Trustee make a deed for it to any person who will purchase it from him and the Court will order the possession to be delivered to Mr Albert who can then deliver the same
