DECREE OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

UPON CONSIDERATION of the pleadings filed herein, and of the testimony and other evidence presented at the hearing of this matter in open Court, and upon the consent of the parties, it is this 10th day of July, 1986, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, ORDERED, that the Plaintiff and Counter-Defendant, DAVID L. BERNARDI, is hereby granted an absolute divorce from the Defendant and Counter-Plaintiff, DIANE L. BERNARDI.

It is further ORDERED, that the Separation Agreement entered into by the parties on August 31, 1984 be and is hereby incorporated but not merged into this Decree of Absolute Divorce with the following changes and exceptions by stipulation of the parties:

1. The terms and conditions of paragraphs SIXTH and EIGHT of the aforesaid agreement are deleted and the following new paragraphs are substituted:

a. The Husband, DAVID L. BERNARDI, agrees to pay and provide to the Wife, DIANE L. BERNARDI, as marital property a share in and to his Navy retirement pay which he is now receiving. The parties agree that the Wife's said share is to be 33.95% of the Husband's gross monthly retirement income, subject to periodic increases for cost of living or otherwise. The Husband shall furnish the Wife with a copy of any and all notices of change in his Navy retirement pay immediately upon receiving such notice, and he shall increase the Wife's share of payments by the same percentage of increase. The Husband shall commence paying the Wife her share when he is first eligible to receive it and the Husband shall execute an allotment for all payments due.

The parties expressly agaree that the Wife's share in the Husband's retirement pension is marital property and is not alimony, and that she is to continue to receive her share until her death or the death of the Husband, whichever shall first occur.

b. The Husband also agrees to pay alimony, maintenance and support to the Wife in an amount equal to $400.00 per month minus the amount received by the Wife that month as her share of the Husband's retirement benefits, the sum of both the Wife's share in the Husband's retirement benefits and the alimony payment to be equal to $400.00 each month. The parties agree that if the Wife remarries the alimony portion of the monthly payment shall cease, but however, the Wife shall continue to receive her share of the Husband's retirement benefit as outlined above. The Parties specifically agree that the alimony is subject to court modification.

c. The parties further agree that the above described Wife's share in the Husband's retirement as well as the alimony payment shall be made by allotment from his retirement check from the United States Navy, said allotment to equal $400.00 each month and which may not be discontinued by the husband unless the contingencies described in paragraphs a. and b. above come to pass. Until said allotment begins, however, the Husband agrees to pay the Wife the $400.00 monthly payments beginning with a payment for the remainder of July of 1986 in the amount of $200.00.

d. That the Husband, DAVID L. BERNARDI, recognizes that he is currently $3,800.00 in arrears, and is obligated to pay for the Wife's attorney fees under the terms of the parties' separation agreement, and the Wife hereby releases the Husband from his obligation to pay to her the arrearage amount and her attorney's fees in consideration of the Husband's promise and agreement to pay all charges made by the Wife on the Husband's credit cards up unto the time of the parties divorce.

d. The parties hereby recognize that the Husband has transferred and assigned to the Wife all of his right, title and interest in and to the property listed on Schedule A attached to the Separation Agreement.
