JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

On November 27, 1989, the captioned case was heard on Defendant-Counter Plaintiff's Complaint for Absolute Divorce, testimony was taken, and an agreement between the parties was reached and put on the record. Based on the testimony of Carol Lynn Madison, Michael Steven Madison and Irene Ursula Madison, the Court finds as facts that Carol Lynn Madison and Michael Steven Madison were married on September 3, 1986, that they have two minor children, Brenton (born September 16, 1985) and Brittany (born March 6, 1987), that they separated during the month of June, 1988, and agreed to terminate their marriage on or about October 21, 1988, that since October 21, 1988, the parties have lived separate and apart without cohabitation pursuant to an agreement to terminate their marriage, and that there is no reasonable expectation of a reconciliation between the parties, that the said children's mother is a fit and proper person to have sole custody of the children, and that it is in the best interests of the children to be in their mother's custody.
