ISSUES RELATED TO PARENTING

Mrs. Linda Green and Mr. Thomas Green agree to share in the major decisions that relate to their son Mathew Thomas Green as joint custodial parents. They were however unable to agree on a daily schedule, with both parents desiring residential custody. The following holiday and vacation schedule was agreed upon, with the understanding that they will both maximize flexibility in scheduling. They were able to agree to alternating weekends with Mathew.

Christmas Eve will be spent with the parent who has residential custody and will continue through Christmas night at 6:00 P.M. Mathew will then spend Christmas night at 6:00 P.M. through 6:00 P.M. on December 26th, his birthday, with the other parent. The remaining holidays will be alternated, and will consist of Labor Day - 3 days, Memorial Day Weekend - 3 days, and Thanksgiving - 4 days. Fourth of July and Halloween will fall as per the eventually agreed upon daily schedule. Mother's Day and Father's Day will be spent with the respective parent. Both parents understand that the holiday schedule supersedes the daily schedule, and vacation schedule.

The summer vacation will consist of the first morning after the last day of school and continue through the evening before the first day of school. Mathew will split the time evenly between both parents. The first half of the summer will be scheduled by Memorial Day, the second half by the Fourth of July. The preference is to divide the time in two week blocks.

Both parents will have access to all school and medical records and agree to communicate with each other on a weekly basis regarding Mathew's activities, school progress and health. The parent who has residential custody will maintain the routine medical care and both parents agree to notify the other of any emergency medical treatment. Mr. Green will maintain medical insurance coverage for Mathew. Mrs. Green requests notification of routine illness while Mathew is with his father.

Mrs. Linda Green and Mr. Thomas Green agree that should either parent move 30 miles or 30 minutes from their present location and be unable to agree to any necessary modifications to their parenting agreement that they will consider using the process of mediation prior to litigation.

The above reflects my understanding of the wishes of both parents as relates to the joint parenting of their son Mathew.
