ORDERED, that the parties shall share joint legal and physical custody of their minor child, namely: DANIELLE CATHERINE THOMAS (Date of Birth: April 8, 1987); and it is further ORDERED, that the parties shall each waive child support at this time and that same is in the best interests of the minor child for the following reasons:

1. That the minor child resides approximately one-half of her time with each parent;

2. That if this Court were to enforce child support, the Defendant would be required to pay $50.44 per month pursuant to Maryland Child Support Guidelines;
3. That the parties equally divide all expenses for the minor child including, but not limited to, school tuition, daycare, and living necessities;
4. That as the minor child resides in equal amounts of time with each party and the parties equally divide expenses relating to said child, it is in the best interests of the minor child to waive child support at this time.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This case came before the Circuit Court on August 13, 1997 and the parties appeared with counsel and recited an agreement to the court on the property issues and presented testimony on the allegations contained in the Complaint and upon consideration thereof it is thereupon this 15th day of October 1997, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED, that the Plaintiff, Joseph M. Tennyson is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Frances M. Tennyson; it is further, ORDERED, that the parties acknowledge and agree that they currently own four (4) parcels of real property. The parties further agree that they previously owned two (2) residential properties on Chaptico Wharf Road in Chaptico, Maryland that was the subject of a foreclosure proceeding and the sales proceeds are currently held by the Trustee, Julian J. Izadore. The parties have agreed to the disposition of the real property and real property interests as follows:

a. The parties have agreed that the sales proceeds of the Chaptico Wharf properties currently held by the foreclosure trustee will be divided in equal shares. Upon receipt of his share of the proceeds, the Plaintiff shall pay to the Defendant the sum of $40,000.00 in partial satisfaction if the consideration paid to the Defendant for her interest in certain marital property. The Plaintiff shall apply his share of the sales proceeds to satisfy all outstanding real estate taxes owed on the marital property.

b. That the Defendant shall waive her right, title and interest in the marital home known as 39039 Deer Lane, Mechanicsville, Maryland 20659, Tract I and Tract II, 100 Deer Lane, Mechanicsville, Maryland 20659 upon the condition that the Plaintiff pay the Defendant the sum of $29,000.00 within six (6) months of the entry of this Order and that the Plaintiff assume, refinance, or otherwise release the Defendant from any mortgage obligation encumbering any of those properties within eighteen (18) months of the entry of this order. If the Plaintiff is unable to remove the Defendant from the mortgage obligation within the time prescribed, the property shall be listed for sale. The Plaintiff shall pay the monthly mortgage payments that are due on any of the properties in a timely manner and indemnify and hold the Defendant for any liability thereon. That upon sale of any of the properties, the Plaintiff shall satisfy and pay the sum of $29,000.00 to the Defendant if that consideration has not been paid by the Plaintiff to the Defendant at the time of sale.

c. That the parties shall list the real estate located in Jacksonville, Florida for sale and equally divide the proceeds thereof; it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall retain as her sole and exclusive personal property, the dining room set, freezer, riding lawn mower and an exercise climber machine; it is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall pay the sum of $300.00 per month for five (5) years as alimony to the Defendant. The aforesaid alimony payment is not modifiable or extendable by any court upon the request of either party and is due on the first day of each month for a period of exactly sixty (60) months commencing on September 1, 1997; it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant waives all her right, title and interest in the business operated by the Plaintiff known as J. M. Tennyson Construction. The Plaintiff shall hold all business assets as his sole and exclusive property and shall hold the Defendant harmless for any loans, encumbrances, liens or other liabilities associated with the business and Plaintiff shall remove Defendant's name from any and all liabilities associated with that business; it is further,

ORDERED, that both parties shall sign any documents that are necessary and proper to release any and all interest that each may have in the marital property that the parties are retaining in their current possession; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the terms and conditions of the Consent Order dated March 12, 1997 are hereby incorporated, but not merged into the Judgment of Absolute Divorce; it is further,

ORDERED, that the court recognizes that the minor child, Kristy has entered family counseling and the parties shall execute those releases that are necessary and proper to allow any counselor providing individual counseling to either party for the child to exchange information with another certified counselor. Furthermore, the court appoints Marie Daughtery as the attorney for the minor child to contact the counselor and determine whether it is in the child's best interests to waive the privilege of nondisclosure to exchange information concerning the psychological communication between the child and the counselor. The parties shall be equally responsible for the attorney's fees associated therewith; it is further,

ORDERED, that the issue of retroactive child support accounting from November 1, 1996 is reserved pending further order of court or agreement of the parties; it is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as this order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject the Plaintiff to a fine not to exceed $250.00 and may result in the Plaintiff not receiving notice of proceeding for earnings withholdings.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

UPON CONSIDERATION of the pleadings and motions filed and the Testimony received before a Hearing Examiner of this Honorable Court, it is this 13th day of November, 1997, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, hereby ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, MAXINE E. ROTHWELL, is granted a Judgment of Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, FELTON L. ROTHWELL: and it is further

ORDERED, that the parties' Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement, dated April 29, 1997, is incorporated, but not merged, into this Judgment of Absolute Divorce; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, MAXINE E. ROTHWELL, shall have sole legal and physical custody of the parties' minor child, namely EBONEE ROTHWELL (Date of Birth: April 16, 1983); and it is further ORDERED, that the Defendant, FELTON L. ROTHWELL, shall have visitation with said minor child pursuant to the parties' Separation and Property Settlement Agreement; and it is further ORDERED, that the Defendant, FELTON L. ROTHWELL, shall pay child support directly unto the Plaintiff, MAXINE E. ROTHWELL, in the amount of $400.00 each and every month commencing February 1997; and it is further ORDERED, that said amount of child support deviates from Maryland Child Support Guidelines but is in the best interest of the minor child for the following reasons:

- That the Defendant, pursuant to the parties' Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement, has assumed more than fifty (50%) of the parties' debts;
- That the Defendant has agreed to transfer and assign unto the Plaintiff all of his right, title, and interest in and to the marital home, and to be financially responsible for all mortgages related to the marital home;
- That the Plaintiff and minor child reside in said marital home;

and it is further

ORDERED, that the Defendant's child support obligation shall continue until the minor child reaches the age of eighteen (18), dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated; and it is further ORDERED, that if the Defendant, FELTON L. ROTHWELL, accumulates support payment arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, the Defendant shall be subject to earnings withholding; and it is further ORDERED, that the Defendant, FELTON L. ROTHWELL, is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the child support order is in effect, and failure to comply will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in the Defendant not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding; and it is further ORDERED, that the parties' Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement resolves all custody, visitation, child support, and marital property issues.
