JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings filed herein, and the testimony and evidence presented at a hearing on July 13, 1999 before the Master for Domestic Relations Causes, and the consent of the parties as related on the record at that hearing, it is this 19th day of August, 1999 by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland

ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that the Defendant/Counter Plaintiff WILLIAM C. SMITH is granted an Absolute Divorce from the Plaintiff/Counter Defendant, MARY PATRICIA SMITH; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Separation and Partial Property Settlement Agreement executed by the parties on April 29, 1998 is incorporated, but not merged, into this Judgment of Absolute Divorce; and it is further

ORDERED, that the parties shall cooperate to prepare and execute the Qualified Domestic Relations Orders and other instruments reasonably necessary to give effect to their agreement; and it is further

ORDERED, that Defendant/Counter Plaintiff's pension benefits derived from his employment at Congressional Information Service shall be divided between the parties in the proportions set forth in their Separation and Partial Property Settlement Agreement, and that the parties shall effectuate that division through the mutual election of a lump sum distribution of benefits; and it is further

ORDERED, that Plaintiff/Counter Defendant hereby waives her right to elect survivor benefit plan protection for said pension; and it is further ORDERED, that Defendant/Counter Plaintiff shall pay the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) per month in temporary alimony to Plaintiff/Counter Defendant commencing August 1, 1999 and continuing for eighteen months inclusive; said alimony payments are not subject to judicial modification.

vs. : Case No.: CA-98-897

TIMOTHY ALLEN BOYER

Defendant

JUDGEMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter having come before the Master for Domestic Relations Causes on the 20th day of July, 1999, and testimony having been presented, it is thereupon by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Joni Lynn Boyer, shall be granted an absolute divorce from the Defendant, Timothy Allen Boyer; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the parties shall have joint custody of the minor child, namely Amber Sage Boyer, born February 6, 1992, with the Plaintiff to serve as the primary residential custodian; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff monthly child support in the amount of $300.00 effective September 1, 1999. That the Defendant's obligation under the Maryland Child Support Guidelines is $524.00. That the downward deviation is in the amount $224.00. That said deviation is in the best interest of the minor child as the Defendant has waived significant marital property interest to, and in favor of the Plaintiff, and that the Defendant assists the Plaintiff in the transportation of the minor child; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall confer with the Defendant in good faith on matters of importance relating to Amber's health, education and welfare and the parties will coordinate such decisions. That the parties shall exchange all pertinent information regarding health and education, including report cards and health records. That the Defendant shall be allowed the opportunity to participate in Amber's school and non-school related activities, including school meetings, teacher's conferences, coaching, etc. That the responsibility for day to day decisions will rest with the parent who has physical custody of the minor child at that time. That if the minor child is ill or in an accident, the parties agree to contact the other immediately; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the parties will maintain free and unhampered access and contact between each other and the minor child and will do nothing to alienate or destroy the minor child's affection for either party; and it is further,

ORDERED, that if the minor child ever expresses a desire to live the Defendant or to spend more time with him, the parties agree to consider her request in good faith and will make a decision based upon the child's best interests; and it is further,

ORDERED, that visitation shall be reasonable and liberal, including but not limited to the following: Defendant will pick the child up from the Plaintiff's residence every other Friday at 7:00 p.m. and Plaintiff shall pick the child up from the Defendant's residence on Sunday at 7:00 p.m. to end the weekend visitation,

Holidays for 1999 - Easter with the Defendant, Memorial Day weekend with the Plaintiff, July 4 with the Defendant, Labor Day weekend with the Plaintiff, Thanksgiving with the Defendant and Christmas Eve from 7:00 p.m. until Christmas day at 7:00 p.m. with the Defendant, holidays for 2000 - Easter with the Plaintiff, Memorial Day weekend with the Defendant, July 4 with the Plaintiff, Labor Day weekend with the Defendant, Thanksgiving with the Plaintiff and Christmas Eve from 7:00 p.m. until Christmas day at 7:00 p.m. with the Plaintiff, every odd year thereafter shall follow the 1999 schedule and every even year thereafter shall follow the 2000 schedule; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the child shall be with the Plaintiff on Mother's Day and the mother's birthday and with the Defendant on Father's Day and the father's birthday; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall have four (4) consecutive weeks of summer visitation ~~to occur in two (2) week increments~~ PROVIDING ~~provided he notifies~~ the Plaintiff ~~by April 30th~~ 30 DAYS NOTICE of the scheduled visitation; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the parties agree to give each other first option to provide babysitting services for the minor child if either party requires same; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the parties agree that Defendant shall not be prevented from taking the minor child on trips during visitation, so long as Plaintiff is provided reasonable notice and location of the destination; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the all martial property issues have been resolved between the parties; and it is further,

ORDERED, that the Defendant is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any address change so long as this support order is in affect and that failure to comply with this paragraph will subject the obligator to a penalty not to exceed $250.00.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This matter having been heard by an examiner and testimony having been put on record it is therefore this 3rd day of Sept., 1999, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, hereby,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff, Dianne L. Skinner, is granted a Judgment of Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Clifton A. Skinner, Sr., and it is further

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall have sole legal and primary residential custody of the minor children Clifton A. Skinner, Jr. (date of birth: January 30, 1984); and Casey A. Skinner (date of birth: July 12, 1986) with reasonable visitation to the Defendant, and it is further ORDERED, that the Defendant shall pay child support to the Plaintiff in the amount of Eighty-five Dollars ($ 85.00) per week and that same shall be paid directly to the Plaintiff. This child support obligation is a deviation from the Child Support Guidelines by approximately One Dollar and 50/100 ($ 1.50) per week. This deviation is in the best interest of the minor children, and it is further

ORDERED, that the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated July 26, 1997 is incorporated but not merged herein, and it is further ORDERED, if the Defendant accumulates support payments arrears amounting to more than thirty (30) days of support, the Defendant shall be subject to earnings withholding. The Defendant shall notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address of employment so long as the Support Order is in effect. If the Defendant fails to comply with the above paragraph, it will subject the Defendant to a penalty not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty Dollars and 00/100 ($ 250.00) and may result in the Defendant's not receiving notice of proceedings for earnings withholding.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This case was scheduled before the Master for Domestic Relations on August 31, 1999 and the parties appeared with counsel. Upon consideration of the agreements and testimony presented it is thereupon this 20th day of Sept., 1999, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED, AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff, John C. Smith, is hereby awarded an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Melanie Sue Smith. It is further, ORDERED, that the terms of the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated January 12, 1998, be incorporated, but not merged into this Judgment except as modified within this order. It is further,

ORDERED, that the parties shall have joint legal custody of their children, namely, Wendy Lynn Smith, born April 26, 1984, Jason Clinton Smith, born September 8, 1987, and Emily Sarah Smith, born January 18, 1994 with the Defendant having primary residential custody and reserving reasonable and liberal visitation to the Plaintiff. It is further,

ORDERED, that the Maryland Support Guidelines would require the Plaintiff to pay the Defendant the sum of $774.00 per month to the Defendant. The parties have agreed that the Plaintiff would pay $750.00 per month as child support in view of the financial obligations of the Plaintiff that were acquired during the marriage which would otherwise effect the net income of the Defendant. Therefore, a strict application of the child support guidelines is inappropriate and the Plaintiff shall pay $750.00 per month as child support accounting from September 1, 1999. It is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall claim the minor child, Wendy, age 15, as his tax dependent for all Federal and State tax returns until she reaches the age of 18, thereafter, he shall begin to claim the minor child, Jason, age 11, until he reaches the age of 18. The Defendant shall claim the minor children at all other times. It is further,

ORDERED, that the parties shall each receive their marital share of the other parties' retirements, 401K plans or other deferred compensation plans that were acquired during marriage and this Court retains jurisdiction to enter an further qualified domestic relations orders (QDRO) to implement this disposition. It is further

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall have use and possession of the family home known as 43195 Plainview Drive, Hollywood, Maryland for a period of three years from the entry of this order and she shall maintain all mortgage payments, insurance costs, homeowners dues and repairs without contribution by the Plaintiff and shall indemnify him from any liability arising from those expenses. Upon the expiration of the three year period, the property shall be sold and the net proceeds of sale shall be equally divided by the parties. Concurrently, any loss incurred by the sale, shall be the responsibility of both parties. It is further,

ORDERED, that all child support payments shall be made to the Department of Social Services, Bureau of Support Enforcement by wage lien. It is further,

ORDERED, that if the Plaintiff accumulates child support arrears accounting to more than 30 days of support, he may be subject to earnings withholding proceedings. It is further,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff shall notify the Clerk of this Court of any change of address or employment so long as this order is in effect and failure to do so shall subject him to a civil penalty not to exceed $250.00 and may result in him not receiving notice of earnings withholding proceedings.

Upon consideration of the pleadings filed herein, and the testimony and evidence presented on August 20, 1999, before one of the Standing Examiners of the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, it is this 20th day of Sept., 1999, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ORDERED that the Plaintiff, CATHERINE M. CLARKE, is granted an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, THOMAS F. CLARKE; and it is further

ORDERED that the Voluntary Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated June 14, 1999, is incorporated, but not merged, into this Judgment; and it is further ORDERED that the parties shall share joint legal and physical custody of their minor children, namely Amy L. Clarke, born July 15, 1983, and Anna M. Clarke, born June 23, 1992; and it is further

ORDERED that the custody schedule previously set forth in this Court's Order of April 14, 1999 shall remain in full force and effect; and it is further

ORDERED that neither party shall pay child support to the other; said Order constitutes a deviation from the child support guidelines amount of $ 82.00 per month payable by Defendant to Plaintiff, and the Court finds that said deviation is in the children's best interests because (a) the parties have been able to resolve this matter by agreement, (b) the children are with each party one half of the time and each party provides for them, and (c) waiving the child support enables Defendant to pay the mortgage on the former marital home which has been the children's home for many years.

ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay the child support as follows:

a. Defendant shall pay the mortgage and home equity loan on the marital home directly to Cedar Point Federal Credit Union until the home is sold or the Plaintiff buys out the Defendant's interest in the home; Neither party shall take an advance on the home equity loan without the consent of the other party;

b. The remaining balance shall be paid directly to the Plaintiff.

The Defendant shall make payments on the mortgage and home equity loan by automatic deduction from his pay. If said automatic deduction should be terminated, then the Defendant shall pay the entire child support to the Plaintiff and the Plaintiff would be responsible for the mortgage and home equity loan; and it is further ORDERED that the parties shall recalculate child support when each child reaches the age of 18, dies or becomes emancipated. The parties shall exchange the five most recent pay statements prior to effectuating the change in the child support amount, and it is further ORDERED that the Defendant shall provide health insurance for the parties' minor children as long as it is available through his employment at a reasonable cost. The parties shall equally divide (50/50) all expenses that are not covered by the health insurance.

ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall have use and possession of the marital home for three (3) years from the date of the absolute divorce. That the parties shall agree to all repairs prior to repairs being done. However, the Plaintiff does not need the consent of the Defendant to make a repair if the repair is necessary for the safety and/or health of the children. The Plaintiff shall immediately inform the Defendant of such necessary repair within forty-eight hours of the repair in writing by certified mail. The Plaintiff shall be reimbursed one-half of the repairs at the time of sale or buy-out for all repairs.

If the Plaintiff should die during her use and possession of the marital home, the Defendant shall have use and possession of the marital home until the expiration of the use and possession. At the end of the three (3) years, the house shall be sold and after the mortgage and home equity loan are paid and all expenses associated with the sale of the marital home are paid, the Plaintiff's estate shall receive Thirty-Five Thousand $35,000.00 Dollars, prior to equal division (50/50) of the remaining proceeds.

The Plaintiff shall not lease the marital home in whole or part without the consent of the Defendant. The Defendant shall not unreasonably withhold said consent. The Plaintiff must remove the Defendant's name on all utilities accounts on the marital home prior to the granting of an absolute divorce. That the Defendant must have all bills related to the marital home paid in full prior to the transfer of said accounts.

The Plaintiff has the option to purchase the Defendant's interest in the marital home. The parties shall each obtain their own appraisal at their own expense. If an agreement can not be reached as to the Defendant's marital share, the parties shall submit to binding arbitration with Michael Stamm, Esquire.

When the marital home is sold, after the mortgage and home equity loan are paid and all expenses associated with the sale of the marital home, the Plaintiff shall receive Thirty-Five Thousand ($35,000.00) Dollars prior to the equal division (50/50) of the remaining proceeds.

The Defendant shall receive the Federal and State tax deduction on the marital home until the home is sold or a buy-out occurs; and it is further ORDERED that the Defendant shall pay Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) per month to the Plaintiff as and for non-modifiable alimony. Said payments shall commence the first day of September, 1999 and continue for three years. The Court shall not have the jurisdiction to modify said provision. Both parties herein waive all rights against the other for maintenance, support or financial contribution; and it is further ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall retain possession of the 1987 Chevy Van and the Defendant shall retain possession of the 1986 Chevy Pick-up. Each party agrees to sign any and all documentation necessary to effectuate the transfer on the date of this divorce and it is further

ORDERED that each party shall keep the personal property currently in their possessions, except the following shall be returned to the below designated party:

a. The Defendant shall retain tools (except for the Plaintiff may retain tools necessary to maintain the marital home);

b. The Defendant shall retain HO trains;

c. The Defendant shall retain the dresser he had prior to marriage;

d. The Plaintiff shall retain the Lionel (O Gauge) trains; and it is further ORDERED that the Plaintiff shall receive her marital share of the Defendant's Civil Service Retirement based on the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Number of months marriage up to the February 1, 1999} \times 0.5}{\text{Number of months the Defendant is employed by Civil Service}}$$

That the Plaintiff shall be entitled to Survivor Benefits on her share of the retirement. The Plaintiff shall be responsible for the expense of said survivor benefits, and it is further

ORDERED that the parties shall share in the claiming of the minor children as tax deductions as follows:

Tax Year 1999	Each party shall claim two children
Tax Year 2000	Each party shall claim two children
Tax Year 2001	Defendant shall claim two children
	Plaintiff shall claim one child
Tax Year 2002	Plaintiff shall claim two children
	Defendant shall claim one child
Tax Year 2003	Each party shall claim one child
Tax Year 2004	Each party shall claim one child
Tax Year 2005	Each party shall claim one child
Tax Year 2006	Defendant claims one child
Tax Year 2007	Plaintiff claims one child

When any child attains the age of 19 or older and is still eligible to be claimed as a deduction, if that child is living with the Plaintiff, the Plaintiff may claim the child.

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

This case was scheduled before the Master for Domestic Relations on August 31, 1999 and the parties appeared with counsel. Upon consideration of the agreements and testimony presented it is thereupon this 8 day of Sept, 1999, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ADJUDGED, ORDERED, AND DECREED, that the Plaintiff, Melissa Greig-Evans, is hereby awarded an Absolute Divorce from the Defendant, Douglas Evans. It is further,

ORDERED, that the terms of the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated July 14, 1999, be incorporated, but not merged into this Judgment It is further,

ORDERED, that the parties shall have joint legal custody of their children, namely, Alicia Evans, born February 20, 1990 and Stuart Evans, born January 20. 1997 with the Plaintiff having primary residential care and custody of the children and reserving reasonable visitation to the Defendant. It is further,

ORDERED, that the Maryland Support Guidelines would require the Defendant to pay the Plaintiff the sum of $237.00 per month to the Defendant. The parties have agreed that the child support obligation would be re-evaluated at such time as the Defendant becomes employed on a full-time basis. It is further,

ORDERED, that in view of the forthcoming reevaluation of the Defendant's child support obligation, all child support payments shall be directly to the Plaintiff on the first day of each month. Upon the entry of subsequent child support order, either party may request that all future child support payments be made to the Department of Social Services, Bureau of Support Enforcement by wage lien. It is further,

ORDERED, that if the Defendant accumulates child support arrears accounting to more than 30 days of support, he may be subject to earnings withholding proceedings. It is further,

(2) The alternate payee is the Plaintiff, FLORENTINA MARTIN, who presently resides at 20831 Sunlight Court, Lexington Park, Maryland, 20653. She was born on March 14, 1962; her social security number is 135-72-9427.

(3) The parties were married on July 16, 1980, and divorced on date of the within and foregoing Order. This Order is incident to their divorce.

(4) When the D\efendant retires from the Federal Government, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to receive as her property a portion of the retirement benefits based on the service of the Defendant. The Plaintiff's equitable interest in said pension is hereby declared to be thirty percent (30%) of the "marital share" of said pension benefit, the marital share being that fraction of the benefit whose numerator shall be the number of months of the parties' marriage during which benefits were being accumulated, which number is 168, and whose denominator shall be the total number of months during which benefits were accumulated prior to the time when the payment of such benefits shall commence. The Plaintiff shall receive thirty percent (30%) of the aforesaid marital share of any payments made from the pension to the participant, including any death benefits, if, as, and when, such payments are made. The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) is directed to pay the Plaintiff's share directly to her.

(5) The Plaintiff is entitled to a survivor annuity based on the Defendant's monthly retirement benefits whether the Defendant dies before or after retirement. The amount of her survivor annuity shall be determined by multiplying 55% of his self-only annuity by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of marriage during service, and the denominator of which is the total number of months of his service.

(6) If the Plaintiff predeceases the Defendant (whether before or after his retirement), OPM is directed to pay the Plaintiff's share of the Defendant's retirement benefits to the children of the parties in two equal shares.

(7) The Office of Personnel Management is directed not to pay to the Defendant a refund of employee contributions if such payment would cause a decrease in any payment awarded to the Plaintiff under this Order.

(8) If the Defendant terminates his employment with the Federal Government without first retiring, he will purchase and maintain insurance on his life for the benefit of the Plaintiff sufficient to enable her to buy (1) an annuity equivalent to the survivor annuity she would have received if he retired on the day her terminated his federal employment, plus (2) the premium cost for ten years of Blue Cross and Blue Shield health insurance. Such life insurance shall be continued until the Defendant either dies or applies for an immediate federal annuity which he is eligible to receive.

(9) If because of a delay in processing this Order or for any other reason, OPM pays one party an amount of money that should have been paid to the other party, the receiving party will immediately notify OPM of the error and send the amount of the overpayment to the party to whom it is owed.

(10) Any income payable to either of the parties from the Civil Service Retirement System shall be taxable to the recipient of such income.

(11) If any provision of this Order designed for implementation by the Office of Personnel Management is found by that agency to be unacceptable for processing, the parties shall renegotiate their Agreement and draft a revised Order which will accord with both their intent and the agency's requirements insofar as that is possible. The parties shall then request the Court to enter a modified Order acceptable for processing substituting the renegotiated provisions in the Order nunc pro tunc.

(12) If it is not possible to draft a Court Order acceptable for processing which both accords with the parties' original intent and meets the agency's requirements, the parties shall adjust their Memorandum Agreement to assure that each party benefits equivalent to those originally intended.

CASE NO.: 18-C-99-000111 DA

JUDGMENT FOR ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

The Complaint for Absolute Divorce having come before the Court for a hearing on the 12th day of July, 1999, IT IS this 4th day of Oct, 1999, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland,

ORDERED, that the Plaintiff's motion to amend her Complaint for Absolute Divorce to include an additional count alleging a one (1) year voluntary separation, said motion being consented to by the Defendant, IS HEREBY GRANTED; and it is further

ORDERED, that as amended, Plaintiff is hereby granted an absolute divorce from Defendant, Kenneth Abell, on the grounds of a one (1) year voluntary separation; and it is further

ORDERED, that both parties shall have joint legal custody of their minor children, Meaghan Lynn Abell, born May 24, 1989, Scott Patrick Abell, born September 14, 1994, and Molly McKeever Abell, born July 8, 1999, with residential custody to the plaintiff and the right of reasonable and liberal visitation to the defendant as set forth in the earlier order of this court dated July 7, 1999, which is incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Defendant's child support obligation is modified by agreement in express recognition of the fact that the Archdiocese of Washington has granted Meaghan a full scholarship for the academic year 1999-2000 which removes the private school tuition expense from the guideline workshett such that Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff the reduced sum of $1,173.60 per moth on first day of each month, starting on October 1, 1999, until said children reach the age of eighteen, die, marry or become self-supporting, per the previous order of this court dated June 9, 1999; and it is further

ORDERED, that the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff the sum of $500.00 per month* on the 15th day of each month commencing on August 15, 1999, and continuing each month thereafter until no later than July 15, 2002, it being the express agreement of the parties that alimony continue no more than three (3) years; and that these alimony payments shall be taxable to the Plaintiff as income; and it is further

~~ORDERED, that whereas the parties have been unable to agree on the revised amount of child support that is due in light of the above alimony provision and the impact of private school tuition, if any, this matter shall be scheduled for a hearing for the sole purpose of recalculating this obligation; and it is further~~

ORDERED, that Defendant shall maintain health insurance on all of his minor children and furnish the Plaintiff cards and forms for its use. Any unreimbursed or uncovered expenses for the minor children are to be paid in proportion to their respective incomes as determined by the guideline worksheet used for calculating the presumptive child support amount under Maryland law; and it is further

ORDERED, that Plaintiff shall receive her marital interest in Defendant's FERS and TSP pensions according to the Bangs formula, except that the end date of Plaintiff's

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings filed herein and by consent of the parties hereto it is this ____ day of _____, 1999 by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Plaintiff, IRMA BORBON, be and hereby is awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, JESUS BORBON, JR.; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the parties to this case shall share the joint legal custody of the minor child, namely, MEAGAN RENEE BORBON, date of birth January 5th, 1995. Physical custody of the minor child shall be with the Plaintiff, subject to the Defendant's right of reasonable and liberal visitation, including between April 3rd and April 11th, 1999 in Texas; and it is further, ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Defendant shall pay child support through the St. Mary's County Bureau of Support Enforcement in the amount of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) per month, commencing April 1st, 1999. Said child support payments shall continue each and every month until the first to occur to the following as to the said child: (a) said child having married, or (b) said child having died, or (c) said child having become self-supporting, or (d) said child having reached the age of eighteen (18) years, or (e) said child having become otherwise legally unentitled to the Defendant's support.

The child support of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) per month is an upward deviation of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) per month, by consent of the parties, for the following reasons and on the following terms: due to the Defendant's breach of the parties' separation agreement, the Plaintiff has incurred and will continue to incur losses of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00).

The upward deviation will continue until the Defendant has reimbursed Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00) in total to the Plaintiff at the rate of Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), by the consent of the parties, each month, subject to there being ten percent (10%) per annum interest added to the unpaid portion of the Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00);

At such time as the parties agree that the Two Hundred Dollar ($200.00) monthly upward deviation has fully reimbursed the Plaintiff the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), plus interest, then the Defendant's support obligation shall be reset pursuant to the applicable child support guidelines; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that all said child support payments shall be made payable by way of a wage lien through the St. Mary's County Bureau of Support Enforcement, 180 Washington Street, Leonardtown, Maryland 20650; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that this Order constitutes an immediate and continuing withholding order on all earnings of the obligor that are due on or after the date of this Order; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the withholding order be served immediately on the obligor's employer; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the obligor is required to notify the Court within ten (10) days of any change of address or employment so long as the support order is in effect; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that failure to comply with paragraph (2) of the subsection (Family Law Article, Sec. 10-120) will subject the obligor to a penalty not to exceed $250.00; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Separation Agreement between the parties dated April 25th, 1997 be and hereby is incorporated herein and by reference hereto made a part of this Decree to the extent of the jurisdiction of the court, but not merged herein, as if fully set forth herein and the parties shall abide by and perform, in accordance with its terms and subject to the modifications by this Order; and it is further,
