JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Upon consideration of the pleadings filed herein and after taking testimony before a court examiner, it is this 22 day of August, 2001, by the Circuit Court for St. Mary's County, Maryland, hereby,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Plaintiff, PORZIA ARNESON, be and hereby is awarded an absolute divorce from the Defendant, JOEL ARNESON; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the Plaintiff be awarded custody of the two minor children namely, PORZIA L. ARNESON, date of birth March 6th, 1987 and RONALD C. ARNESON, date of birth January 2, 1992 subject to the Defendant's rights of reasonable and liberal visitation; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that the terms of the Separation and Property Settlement Agreement dated July 28th, 2000 between the parties, filed in these proceedings shall be incorporated but not merged herein, as if fully set forth herein and the parties shall abide by and perform, in accordance with its terms; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED based upon the provisions of paragraph seventeen (17) and eighteen (18) of the separation and property settlement agreement of the parties, there shall not be an award of child support in this case at this time. The Husband's monthly military retirement and his entire United States Navy disability payment total $1,100.00 per month, all of which is being given to the Plaintiff. The Maryland Child Support Guidelines would call for a child support of $565.00 per month. Even if the parties had divided the military retirement along marital property lines, the parties would have equally divided this retirement and disability and, even then, the one-half portion of the retirement and disability that would have been kept by the Defendant would have been $550.00, resulting in a deviation of only $15.00 per month. Inasmuch as the Defendant has further obligated himself to pay for private school and college, the Maryland Child Support Guidelines are effectively being followed.
