Defendant	:

JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE

Hearing having been held on the 11th day of May, 1988, in the within case, upon testimony and stipulations of the parties, it is this 23rd day of June, 1988,

ORDERED and ADJUDGED that a JUDGMENT OF ABSOLUTE DIVORCE be, and it is hereby, entered in favor of the above named Plaintiff, Suzanne Startt Doege, and against the Defendant, William Doege;

AND FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the verbal settlement agreement and stipulations of the parties as next set forth be incorporated as part of this JUDGMENT as follows:

1. That open court costs will be paid equally by the Plaintiff and Defendant. Paid court costs shall remain without contribution.

2. Each party shall be responsible for the payment of their own attorney's fees without contribution from the other.

3. All the provisions of the agreement and stipulation, and of this Judgment will be binding upon the parties, their respective heirs, next-of-kin, executors, administrators, and personal representatives, and to the extent applicable, to their assigns.

4. The Plaintiff and Defendant at the request of the other will execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other any and all further instruments beyond this Judgment which might reasonably be required to give full force and effect to the provisions of their agreement and stipulation.

5. Each of the parties, Plaintiff and Defendant, agree to execute and deliver all deeds, releases, quitclaims, or other instruments as from time to time may be necessary or convenient to enable the other party to deal with his or her property as if he or she were unmarried, and in that regard, each party appoints their respective agents and attorneys-in-fact, Lawrence G. Bohlen and Edward A. Adkins, to execute any instruments to consummate their agreement and stipulation in the event that the parties, themselves, refuse or fail for 30 days after notice to execute same.

6. Except as otherwise provided herein each of the parties for himself or herself and for his or her respective heirs, personal representatives and assigns grants and remises to the other, his or her heirs, personal representatives and assigns, any and all rights or interest which he or she now has or may hereafter acquire in the real, personal or other property of the other. Each of the parties releases all claims, rights, actions, debts, demands of any kind or nature against the other party, which each may have against the other, whether arising out of the marriage or otherwise, and thus this shall be equivalent to a "General Release", including all interest incident to the marriage relation now or at any time hereafter, existing or occurring in the property or estate of the other party, or in marital property, either statutory or arising at common law, specifically including all claims, demands, and interest, arising under the Marital Property Act, Md. It is the intention of each and both parties that during their respective lifetimes they may deal with their separate estates as if they were unmarried, and that upon the death of either, the property, both real and personal, then owned by him or her shall pass by his or her Will or under the laws of descent as the case may be, free from any right of inheritance, title, or claim in the other party as if the parties at such time were unmarried. Each party waives all right, title and interest which he or she might now have or hereafter have as husband or wife, widow or widower, next-of-kin, successor or otherwise, in and to any property of the other, real or personal, whether now owned or hereafter acquired, against such other, the estate of such other, or any part thereof, including, but not limited to, rights arising out of acts, contracts, engagements or liabilities of such other by way of dower or curtesy, statutory thirds, halves or legal shares or claims in the nature of dower or curtesy or widow's or widower's rights, or under intestate laws, or the right to take against the spouse's Will or the right to treat a lifetime conveyance by the other as testamentary or to participate in any way in the enjoyment or distribution of any real or personal estate of which the other may be possessed at the time of his or her death or any rights to receive any legal right or interest whatsoever or all other rights of a surviving spouse to participate in or administer a deceased spouse's estate, whether arising under the laws of Maryland, or any state, a Commonwealth or Territory of the United States or any Country. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, either party may, by Last Will and Testament executed before or after this date, make such provision for the other in said Will as the Testator or Testatrix may deem desirable, and the provisions of this agreement shall not preclude the survivor or his or her personal representatives from his or her entitlement to the bequest and/or devise specified in the Last Will and Testament. Furthermore, both parties do hereby irrevocably waive any and all marital rights to partition, declarations of ownership, rights in the family home, rights in family use personal property, and marital rights in any property, it being the full intention of the parties to settle all such matters in the agreement and Judgment. In order to finally settle all rights and interests of Plaintiff in joint bank accounts, improvements to the marital home, furnishings in the marital home, and motor vehicles Defendant will pay to Plaintiff within ninety (90) days of the date of signing of this Judgment the sum of Seven Thousand Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($7,250) without interest. The parties further agree that these waivers and agreement shall not be modifiable by any Court for any reason whatsoever.

7. The 1978 Ford pickup titled in the name of the Defendant and the 4020 John Deere tractor will remain the property of Defendant. The 1971 Plymouth automobile titled in the name of the Plaintiff and Defendant will be transferred to the Plaintiff within 10 days of signing of this Judgment with any costs of conveyance to be borne by Plaintiff.

8. With regard to personal property, each party shall retain as his or her sole and separate property independent of any claim or right of the other, all wearing apparel, personal ornaments, all personal property, choses in action, contract rights, accounts receivable, stock ownership or any interest in any entity, stocks, bonds or other securities, furniture, savings or checking accounts, and all other assets of any kind or description or nature whatsoever which are now in the sole name, possession, control, or custody of him or her free and clear of the interest of the other, except to the extent otherwise expressly provided herein. All chattels, appliances, goods and other property now and hereafter located in the family home shall be the sole property of Defendant.

9. Each party shall be the sole owner of their own respective retirement program if they are so entitled to any. BARBARA TILGHMAN JEWS	*	IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR

ORDER

Upon the Complaint of Barbara Tilghman Jews for Annulment of Marriage, the Answer of Edward E. Jews thereto, and the testimony taken before and certified by Richard M. Matthews, one of the standing examiners of this court, the court, having read, reviewed, and considered the same, finds that said Complaint does not state any facts sufficient to establish grounds for annulment of the marriage of the parties and that no such facts are established by the aforesaid testimony. Picarella v. Picarella, 20 Md. App. 499 (1974). The opening paragraph of the opinion of the Court of Special Appeals in Picarella fairly summarizes this matter: "This case comes to us in an unusual...posture. It seems that both parties to the cause desire the same result--the annulment of their marriage. The law does not permit their wish to be granted." Id, at 500 (Footnote omitted). If the allegation be true that the parties were married prior to obtaining a marriage license (i.e., married without a license), that fact may render them and the celebrant subject to criminal penalties, but it does not render the marriage void or voidable.

WHEREFORE, the Complaint for Annulment of Marriage herein is accordingly denied, this 29th day of June, 1989.

1. When this order was first submitted to the Court, it provided that the amount of child support would be as set by the Bureau of Support Enforcement upon Defendant's release from imprisonment. The court declined to sign an order requiring Defendant to pay whatever amount was set by an administrative agency and required Plaintiff to submit a re-worded order. Since that time, Defendant has been released from imprisonment. The amount of child support payments will be set by the court, after a hearing, upon the petition of either party. Such petition and any response to the petition must include a current financial statement as required by Md. Rule S-72. The moving party shall, and the responding party may submit a worksheet determining the basic child support obligation as calculated under the uniform child support guidelines.
