CONSENT ORDER

WHEREAS, the Parties herein have filed cross petitions seeking the other to be held in contempt for failure to comply with the terms of the Agreement of the Parties dated January 21, 1991 ("Agreement") and incorporated into this Court's Judgment of Absolute Divorce dated January 22, 1991;

WHEREAS, the Defendant has filed a petition seeking a reduction in the amount that he is to pay to the Plaintiff for the support of the minor Children of the parties, Emily Wyatt McNeil and William Wesley McNeil ("Children");

WHEREAS, the Parties wish to resolve these and other matters; and

WHEREAS, the Court believes that the resolution of the parties is fair and equitable.

It is this 14th day of January, 1992 by the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, Maryland ORDERED that:

1.) Beginning January 1, 1992, the Defendant be, and is hereby, required to pay directly to the Plaintiff on or before the fifth day of each month the amount of $407.00 per month for the support of the Children. This rate of child support shall continue until such time as it may be modified in accordance with the terms of this Order.

2.) The parties shall exchange their IRS W-2 and 1099 forms (or their respective equivalents) for the previous year on the fifteenth day of April of each year during which the Defendant will be required to pay child support. The parties will then use the information contained in this form to calculate the rate of child support for the coming year in accordance with the child support guidelines set forth in § 12-201 et seq. of the Family Law Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland or its successors statutes. Such calculation shall be made on or before the first day of May in each year. The new rate of child support will remain in effect from May 1 of that year through April 30 of the next year.

3.) In the event that the calculated child support payment for any given year reveals that the Defendant has overpaid his basic rate of child support for the previous year, he shall be entitled to a refund of the overpayment. This refund shall be in the form of a credit in the amount of the overpayment. This credit will be subtracted in equal installments from the payments due in the coming year.

4.) In the event that the calculated child support payment for any given year reveals that the Defendant has underpaid his basic rate of child support for the previous year, he shall be required to make up the underpayment. The amount of the underpayment will be added in equal installments to the payments due in the coming year.

5.) Should the Plaintiff elect to supplement her income, her supplementary income shall not be used to calculate child support.

6.) Item Six (5) of the Agreement be, and is hereby, amended to read:

> Husband [Defendant] agrees to segregate from the total assets which he shall retain pursuant to the terms of this Marital Property Settlement Agreement the sum of Nine Thousand Seventy One Dollars and Twenty Five Cents ($9,071.25) (an amount equal to one-half of the cash value of his LaFayette Life Insurance policy) which monies shall remain segregated and shall be used to defer future higher educational expenses (college or vocation schools of the children. The Husband shall segregate this fund by placing it in a separate bank account, investment account or certificate of deposit. Husband shall provide Wife [Plaintiff] with satisfactory proof of the existence of this separate account on or before the thirtieth day of January of each year until either a.) all of the children have reached their 22nd birthday, or b.) all monies in the account have been applied to the purpose for which they were intended. In the event that all monies in the account have been applied to the purpose for which they were intended, Husband shall provide Wife with satisfactory proof of that fact.

7.) Item Six (4) of the Agreement be, and is hereby, amended to read:

> The parties are the co-owners of a joint Merrill Lynch Account No. 707-2071. Husband agrees by such documents as may be necessary to transfer unto Wife all of his right, title and interest in and to said account all the stock and bonds held by said account. Upon the Husband's supplying to Wife of the executed originals of any documents necessary to carry out the terms of this provision and satisfactory proof that he has established an account in accordance with Item Six (5) hereof, Wife shall have thirty days to pay to Husband the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars. In the event that Wife fails to make this payment within the time prescribed, interest shall accrue on the Fifteen Thousand Dollars at a rate of ten percent (10%) per annum beginning from the date upon which Husband had fulfilled all of his obligations under this provision. Should Wife make this payment by way of check, such check may be made payable to Husband and Banks, Nason, Hickson & Sullivan, P. A.

8.) Item 6 (1) of the Agreement be, and is hereby, amended by the addition of the following language:

> C.) Wife agrees to convey all of her right and title to the Jeep now jointly owned by the parties. Wife
