3. The Administrator of the Plan is the _____ (hereinafter the "Plan Administrator").

4. The name and last known mailing address of the Participant and the Alternate Payee covered by this Order:

Participant: David D. Wolfgang

The Participant and the Alternate Payee were married on August 5, 1972.

5. The Alternate Payee shall continue to be treated as the surviving spouse of Participant's benefit for purposes of the spousal survivor benefit under this Plan until such time as this Order is accepted by the Plan and Alternate Payee's benefit is segregated into Alternate Payee's name by the Plan.

6. The Alternate Payee's interest in the Plan shall be fifty percent (50%) of the Participant's account balance as of November 24, 1993, plus all earnings on said fifty percent (50%) share from November 24, 1993 to the date of distribution. It is the parties' intent Wife shall receive her 50% share of the Plan from the entirety of the component part of the Plan designated Fidelity U.S. Government Reserves 050 plus interest accrued since November 24, 1993. In the event said component of the Plan is insufficient to provide said distribution, the excess shall come from the other component part of the Plan.

The Alternate Payee may at any time request that her interest in the plan be rolled over into an Individual Retirement Account in her name only.

The amount to be assigned to the Alternate Payee shall be held in a separate account within the Plan in the name of the Wife as Alternate Payee, and shall share in the proportionate investment return of the Trust, or accrue earnings separately if held in an account segregated from the Trust established pursuant to the terms of the Plan.

7. The Alternate Payee's account shall, upon the Alternate Payee's request, be paid to her independent of any payment to Participant, in such manner as she may elect under the Plan as if the Alternate Payee was a participant in the Plan, after the first to occur of the following:

(b) the date on which the Participant attains (or would have attained) his "earliest retirement age", which term is defined as the earlier of (1) the date the Participant is entitled to a distribution under the Plan or (2) the later of (i) the date the Participant attains age fifty (50) or (ii) the earliest date on which the Participant could begin receiving benefits under the Plan once he is separated from service; or

(c) any other date or event which, under the Plan and applicable law, would permit Wife to receive distributions as Alternate Payee.

(d) If the Alternate Payee should die prior to the payment to her in full of her interest in the Plan, to the extent allowable under the terms of the Plan and applicable law, any such unpaid amount shall be paid to those persons designated as beneficiaries by the Alternate Payee in the same manner as if the Alternate Payee was a participant in the Plan.

(e) The Alternate Payee shall continue to be treated as the surviving spouse of Participant's benefit for purposes of the spousal survivor benefit under this Plan until such time as this Order is accepted by the Plan and Alternate Payee's benefit is segregated into Alternate Payee's name by the Plan.

8. This Order:

A. Does not require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit, or any option, not otherwise provided under the Plan;

B. Does not require the Plan to provide increased benefits (determined on the basis of actuarial value); and

C. Does not require the payment of benefits to an Alternate Payee which are required to be paid to another Alternate Payee under another order previously determined to be a Qualified Domestic Relations order.

9. The Alternate Payee shall include all of the taxable portion of said retirement benefits when received by her in her gross taxable income. For purposes of Sections 72 and 401(a)(9) and 414(p)(11) of the Code, the Alternate Payee shall be treated as the distributee of any distribution or payment made to said Alternate Payee under this Order. Said retirement benefits, when paid, shall not be taxable income or taken as a deduction on the Participant's income tax returns.

10. In the case of the payments made to the Alternate Payee as provided herein, pursuant to Section 72(m)(10) of the Code, the Participant's investment in the contract shall be allocated pro rata, on the basis of the present value of the distribution or payment to the Alternate Payee and the present value of all other benefits payable with respect to the Participant.

11. It is intended that this Order will qualify as a Qualified Domestic Relations Order under Section 414(p) of the Code, and the provisions herein shall be administered and interpreted in conformity therewith. In the event the Plan Administrator refuses to accept this Order as a Qualified Domestic Relations Order, the parties shall amend this Agreement to request the Court to revise the Judgment of Absolute Divorce and/or to take whatever other reasonable actions may be required to obtain the issuance of a QDRO acceptable to the Plan Administrator. If, despite the parties' efforts, the Plan Administrator is unwilling to recognize this Order as a QDRO, either Husband or Wife at any time thereafter, may petition the Court to determine an appropriate monetary award in lieu of that provided herein. The Court hereby reserves the power to make such a determination at the request of the parties; and, the parties hereby consent to the extension pursuant to Family Law Article, Annotated Code of Maryland, Section 8-203.

12. Notwithstanding the aforementioned and with the consent of the parties, this Court hereby retains jurisdiction to amend this Order, but only for the purpose of establishing or maintaining its qualification as a Qualified Domestic Relations Order under the Code; provided, however, that no such amendment shall require the Plan to provide any type or form of benefit, or any option, not otherwise provided under said Plan, and further provided that no such amendment or the right of the Court to so amend will invalidate this Order as "qualified" under the Code.

13. A true copy of this Order shall be served upon the Plan Administrator forthwith. Said Order shall take effect immediately and remain in effect under the further order of the Court.

14. The Court further retains jurisdiction to supervise the payment of retirement benefits, as provided herein.

No provision for payment of child support is made herein, on Plaintiff's testimony & representation that Defendant is physically incapacitated and unable to earn any income, and on Plaintiff's specific abandonment of a present support order. The Court finds that this omission is in the best interest of the children, because it is in their best interest not to create a dispute between their parents where none exists

Whereas, Defendant was duly served with the Complaint on June 1, 1994, which he failed to answer resulting in an Order of Default being entered on December 21, 1994;

Whereas, testimony was taken before Walter B. Gunby, Esquire, Examiner in Chancery, which reflects that Complainant and defaulting Defendant have discussed and agreed upon a division of custody of the two children of the marriage, and that each parent (party) bear the sole obligation of support of that child in her or his custody, all of which is corroborated by the Complaint under oath of Complainant;

Strict application of the Child Support Guidelines would require an award of $95 per month to the wife (Complainant) who, will have sole custody of Leonard N. Lednum, age 14, however, the parents have apparently determined that support of the daughter Elizabeth Ann, age 9, will be more costly to her father who will have sole custody of the daughter, than the cost of support of Leonard, their son, by Complainant.

While the proposed lack of any award of support to Complainant varies by $95 per month from the Child Support Guidelines this Court finds that a harmonious relationship between parents and children with liberal visitation and sibling inter-action is more in the interests of the minor children, resulting from an agreement by divorcing parents than it would be to strictly enforce an award under the Guidelines, contrary to the agreement of the parents.

2. This Court has considered the factors set forth in Md. Fam. Law Code Ann. §11-106, including the Plaintiff's potential to be wholly or partly self-supporting and the time necessary for her to gain sufficient education or training to find suitable employment. Although Mrs. Monds is not currently self-supporting, it will take about two years for her to obtain an AA degree in psychology, after which she will be able to practice counseling. However, this Court finds that even after Mrs. Monds becomes employed the respective standards of living of the parties will continue to be unconscionably disparate. Therefore,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant, Robert Keith Monds, pay directly to the Plaintiff, Rebecca P. Monds, as rehabilitative alimony the sum of One Hundred Eighty-two Dollars ($182) per week for a period of two and one-half (2-1/2) years beginning on May 18, 1995. Thereafter, the Defendant shall pay to the Plaintiff as indefinite alimony the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) per week.

3. The Defendant has accumulated certain pension rights incident to his employment with Crown Cork & Seal and pursuant to a "Stipulation of Pension Value" filed on April 20, 1995, the parties have agreed that the total value of the pension is $219,676.80. This Court finds the value of the pension to be $219,676.80. Therefore,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff be and hereby is granted a future sum or sums of money equal to a fractional share of Defendant's pension as, if, and when he receives it. The fractional share payable to Plaintiff out of each payment Defendant receives is: one-half of a fraction of which the number of years and months of marriage (22 years, 1 month) is the numerator and the total number of years and months employment credited toward retirement is the denominator.

4. The property known as 300 Belvedere Avenue, Cambridge, Maryland, is marital property having a value of $87,500, is subject to a mortgage lien of $70,000 and each of the parties has an equal ownership interest therein. Therefore,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties within ninety (90) days from the date hereof sell the marital home and divide the net proceeds equally between them. In the event the parties do not sell the marital home within ninety (90) days, then Brett W. Wilson, attorney for Plaintiff, and Raymond H. Simmons, Jr., attorney for Defendant, are hereby appointed as Trustees for the purpose of selling the marital home at public or private sale within six (6) months from the date hereof. Unless waived by the parties, before discharging their duties as Trustees, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Simmons shall file with the Clerk of this Court a bond in the amount of $87,500. After payment of the costs of the sale, including trustee's commissions, and payment of all outstanding liens, the net proceeds shall be divided equally between the Plaintiff and Defendant.

5. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant pay all outstanding marital debts which were incurred by the parties prior to their separation in connection with the following accounts: Sears, Montgomery Ward, and Mastercard.

6. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Defendant pay all outstanding medical (including psychiatric) and dental bills incurred by Plaintiff prior to the date hereof, including the cost of medicines and drugs prescribed by a physician or dentist which are not covered by insurance.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Defendant pay to Brett W. Wilson, attorney for the Plaintiff, the sum of One Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($1,800) as his contribution to the suit costs of the Plaintiff.

8. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Plaintiff pay all open court costs incident to these proceedings.
