1993, March 18th, Order of the Hon. Judge Richard D. Warren in reference to Third Party Deft. Bright Wood Corporation's Mt. to Postpone Trial date, filed: "The reasons stated herein are not viewed as constituting good cause for a continuance. However, this is a moot point, as Court has granted a continuance on motion of Furman Lumber. As no response to this Mt. has been filed, the Court, in view of the postponement granted on Furman's motion will grant the request for the scheduling of a Scheduling Conference some time after Labor Day (9/6/93). This will be scheduled, however, as a Pretrial Conference which will include determination of a scheduling order. At the pretrial conference, counsel are to be prepared to negotiate a settlement and to furnish the Court with preliminary voir dire requests, instruction requests, and memoranda regarding any legal questions on which evidentiary or other rulings are anticipated to arise at or before trial", fd.
