Philadelphia church leader to retire

The Rt. Rev. Charles Herbert Foggie of Philadelphia, the oldest Presiding Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, will end a half-century of comprehensive ministry this year when he retires at the AME Zion General Conference in July in Charlotte, N.C.

At 76-years-old, Bishop Foggie is still considered to be one of the outstanding preachers and leaders in the denomination, said Presiding Elder Frederick W. Barnes of the Washington District. "I am thankful for the opportunity of having served for 12 years under the leadership of Bishop Foggie," he said.

In his 52 years in the ministry as pastor and bishop, Reverend Foggie has preached in numerous countries and continents throughout the world, including Africa, China, England and South America. He served 20 years as a bishop, beginning with his election in May, 1968, and served 16 years in his present Episcopal area, the Third Episcopal District.

Last month, Foggie and his wife, Madeline Foggie, were honored by approximately 1,000 members and friends of the Philadelphia - Baltimore Conference of the AME Zion Church with a farewell banquet at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Crystal City, VA. The conference held its annual sessions, May 25-29, at the John Wesley AME Zion Church in Washington, D.C.

In attendance were Bishops Cecil Bishop, Tenth Episcopal District; Clinton R. Coleman, Fifth District and James C. Hoggard, Fourth District. A native of Sumter, S.C., Bishop Foggie was educated at Livingstone College in Salisbury, N.C., and Boston University Graduate School and School of Theology.

During his tenure in the Philadelphia-Baltimore Conference, Foggie was instrumental in establishing several mission churches, including Beth Shalom, Faith, Full Gospel, Heritage, Temple of Faith, E. Franklin Jackson, and Sons and Daughters of Christ. Founded seven years ago by Rev. John Cherry in Prince George's County in suburban Washington, Full Gospel is considered the fastest growing church in the denomination. "In my ministerial tenure, I have never seen any mission started with a prayer group of 22, increase to 4,500 (members) within seven years," said Foggie.

As presiding bishop, he was instrumental in redeeming the conference's Ministerial Retirement Fund. His saving of the church's retirement and death benefits "blessed many ministers of this conference . . ." said Rev. W. W. Bowden, pastor of Union Wesley AME Zion Church. Foggie also appointed the Rev. Rena Karefa-Smart as the first woman presiding elder in the Third Episcopal District.

Last summer, he was recognized by Congress and Rep. Walter E. Fauntroy for his 50 years of service.

A flag was flown in his honor at the U.S. Capitol and the event became part of the Congressional Record. Congressman Fauntroy will present the flag to Bishop Foggie in Charlotte.

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

By Cornelius R. Stam

There are four odds with every one of us should consider in connection with Christ's death at Calvary if we would full appreciate what our Saviour did for us there:

*CRUCIFIXION: It is doubtful whether man has ever conceived a more cruel and humiliating was to execute even the vilest criminals.

The physical agony alone must have been horrible to even contemplate. The criminal was nailed to a tree and left to hang there, writhing in the most intense pain until, fevers wracking his body, he died.

And then think of the humiliation as he was nailed there, stripped and naked, to suffer shame and disgrace before the public gaze.

Little wonder Philippians 2:8 says that Christ HUMBLED Himself to become obedient "UNTO DEATH, EVEN THE DEATH OF THE CROSS."

*SUBSTITUTION: We have not even begun to understand the cross if we do not understand that Christ died there as our Substitute paying for our sin.

"CHRIST DIED FOR OUR SINS" (I Cor. 15:3). "His own self BARE OUR SINS in His own body on the tree" (I Pet. 2:24).

*REPRESENTATION: But Christ was more than our Substitute; He was our voluntary Representative at Calvary. He had taken on Himself human form that He might represent man before god and die as a Man for men.

"As it is appointed unto men once to die but after this the judgment, SO CHRIST WAS ONCE OFFERED TO MAN ..." (Heb. 9:27, 28).

"He was made...lower than the angels...THAT HE BY THE GRACE OF GOD SHOULD TASTE DEATH FOR EVERY MAN' (S:90).

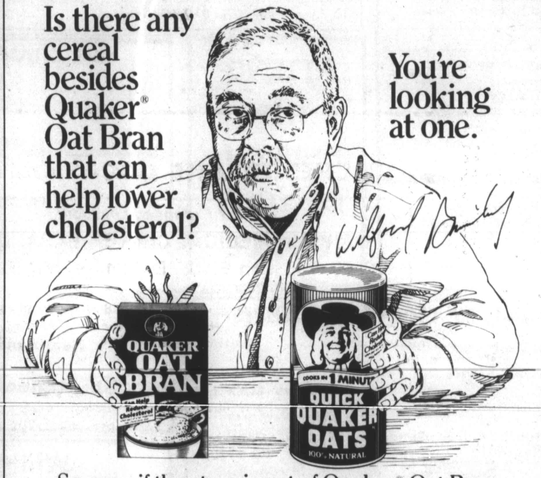
*IDENTIFICATION: It follows from this that if Christ represented me at Calvary, he became identified with me there, and I am identified with him as I accept this be faith.

Hence Paul exclaims: "I AM CRUCIFIED WITH CHRIST, nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, WHO LOVED ME AND GAVE HIMSELF FOR ME" (Gal. 2:20).

The ELECTRICITY IS BACK!

Is there any cereal besides Quaker® Oat Bran that can help lower cholesterol?

You're looking at one.



So even if the store is out of Quaker® Oat Bran, it's easy to do the right thing.

Folks have really taken a shine to oat bran lately. Medical journals and books on health (including The 8-Week Cholesterol Cure, which is a best-seller) want to make sure you know that oat bran can help lower your cholesterol.

The result of all this is that folks are gobbling up Quaker Oat Bran faster than we can get it on the shelves.

What can you do about that?

Clinical studies say that oat products can help lower cholesterol when combined with a sensible diet.

One of them, of course, is oat bran. Another is your old friend, oatmeal. If you're on a low-fat low-cholesterol diet, and you add Quaker Oatmeal to that diet, you could actually bring down your cholesterol. Not just keep it from going up. I said bring it down.

The rest of the good news is this: we're not about to run out of Quaker Oatmeal.

Quaker Oatmeal. It's the right thing to do.

Quaker® Oats. It's the right thing to do.™
