1001

The said Richard Delaverly saying that he did first he serve his subpoena upon the day of November last past without leave granted he required. Although the said plaintiff leave granted according to the order of the court required but he the said Delaverly saith he presumed that he should bring no longer time;

Whereupon this Ct. orders that the said servant
John Harrys do serve the said Richard Delaverly at his abiding house the twelfe day of November last past with leave granted he fully complained and required;

The same day Comm: as before

Matthew Hodgson pl.
vers
Edward Jones def.

} This pl. by petition complained plaintiff defendant appeared Joyce ffox
The petition is read as follows

To the worp: Comm: of Sommersett Cornwall

The humble petition of Matthew Hodgson.

Sheweth

That whereas Edward Jones hath unlawfully taken away and dispossed all his possessions and Registrand of Island being wrongfully & unjustly to his great hinderance loss & dammage, upon petitioners he praying that straight for the said Registrand all his