900
Eden, Robert

Culver, Blooded Horses of Colonial Day

p. 62
Gov. Eden's horse Regulus ran Oct. 1769 at Annapolis - threw rider

p. 63
Sept 27, 1770 at Annapolis - Gov. Eden's horse ran "Cock Aglin"

p. 65
June, 1773 at Nottingham - Gov. Eden's horse won purse of £50 - "Why Not"

p. 67
Gov Eden's horse "Why Not" ran Sept 30, 1773
May 11, 1774 - raced "Why Not" at Nottingham, P.G.Co. won race
May 12, 1774 Gov. Eden's horse "Slim" won race
May 17, 1774, "Slim" raced at Baltimore Town

p. 68
Under Gov. Eden, Turf in Md became more fashionable than at any other period

p. 73
Horses raced by Gov. Eden
Badger, Cock Aglin, Regulus, Slim & Sprightly, Why Not

p. 117-21