Andrew Slicer's ~
Last Will and Testament.

In the name of God, Amen.
I, Andrew Slicer of the City of Balt[illegible] ly of the City of Annapolis and [illegible] his children in Baltimore, being advanced in years but of sound understand understanding, considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and wishing to arrange my affairs in view of that, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament, in form following, that is to say.

First and Principally, commit my soul to Almighty God and my body to the Earth hubly trusting to their meeting again at the duly appointed time for a blissfull immortallity, through the merrits and mediation of my immaculate Saviour.

Secondly, I will that all my legal debt and liabilities be paid and discharged together with my funeral expences, I wish all my property, real personal and mixed to go to and be owned and held by my daughter Elizabeth F. Goldsborough, wife of William T. Goldsborough, to be held and owned by her as her own seperate estate, free from all the controll of her husband, and free from all responsibillities for any of her debts, contracts, or liabilities, and to be held managed and controlled as if she was a fem sole.

And I hereby constitute William T. Goldsborough and apoint him as executor of this my Will.

Witness my hand and seal this 21st day of December 1860.
