Personal.

Mr. Richard E. King, the colored lawyer who applied for admittance to the St. Mary's Bar at the September term of our Court, but who was denied admittance for the want of evidence as to his moral character, came forward on Monday last and furnished satisfactory evidence, and was sworn in. Mr. King has located on Town hill, just opposite the colored school house where persons desiring his professional skill, will be able to find him. He is a man of great perseverance, laboring under every difficulty to qualify himself for the practice of law and deserves success.
