This Indenture made this Fourth day of October in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty one, between Henrietta Hoffman, Widow of George Hoffman, late of Baltimore County, in the State of Maryland, deceased, Philip Rogers Hoffman, and George Brice Hoffman, surviving Executors of the last Will and Testament of the said George Hoffman, all of the same place, of the first part; and John G. Lemley, of the same place, of the second part: Whereas, the said Henrietta Hoffman, Widow as aforesaid, being by the last Will and Testament of the said George Hoffman, seized and possessed of a life-estate in certain property, lying in Baltimore County aforesaid, with a power and authority to the said Henrietta Hoffman, absolutely to sell and dispose of the residuary fee-simple estate in the same, by and with the advice and consent of the Executors of the said Will, Peter Hoffman, (who has since deceased) Philip Rogers Hoffman, and George Brice Hoffman, did heretofore, that is to say, on the twentyfourth day of June AD 1836, by and with the advice and consent of the Executors aforesaid, agree to sell and convey unto George August Koch and Henry Pflegeng a portion of the said property for the sum of twelve hundred Dollars; and, in pursuance of said agreement did, together with the Executors aforesaid, execute and deliver to the said Koch and Pflegeng, on the said twentyfourth day of June, a Bond of Conveyance for the portion aforesaid: And whereas, after the execution and delivery of the said Bond of Conveyance, the said Koch and Pflegeng caused the property therein mentioned to be divided into two equal parts, the said Koch taking possession of the one part, and the said Pflegeng of the other: And whereas, the said Koch having divided his moiety into three parts, retained one part for himself, and sold and assigned the remaining two parts to John Lemley and the aforesaid John G. Lemley: and the said Pflegeng, having divided his moiety into four parts, sold and assigned the same respectively to Joseph Krastel, Jacob Gempff, Knatt Karger and Charles Yerger: And whereas, the said Pflegeng, after the said assignment, having removed out of the State of Maryland, and the purchase money, for the whole property aforesaid, with all interest accrued thereon, having been paid by the aforesaid assignees, in proportion to their respective interests therein, to the said parties of the first part; and the said parties of the first part, having declined to convey to the said assignees the portions of the said property respectively held by them, without the direction of some competent tribunal, the said assignees filed a Bill against the said parties of the first part, on the Equity side of Baltimore County Court, for the purpose of obtaining Conveyances as aforesaid; and it was thereupon Decreed by Baltimore County Court aforesaid sitting in Equity, on the fourth day of September AD 1841, that the said parties of the first part, should convey to the aforesaid assignees respectively certain portions of the property aforesaid, according to the divisions and bounds, laid down upon a Plat of the whole property, filed among the proceedings in the cause; and in pursuance and execution of the said Decree, these presents are executed: Now Therefore this Indenture witnesses, that for and in consideration of the premises, and of the sum of Five Dollars, to the parties hereto of the first part, paid by the party hereto of the second part, at or before the execution and delivery of these presents, and the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said parties of the first part do hereby bargain, sell and convey unto the said John Lennley, the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, All that Tract or Parcel of Land, lying in Baltimore County aforesaid, which is contained within the following description, that is to say: Beginning for the same at a large Black Oak Tree, supposed to stand at the end of the North twenty degrees East one hundred and fortyfive perches line of the whole Tract called Addition to Harbour, and running thence North twentyfive degrees East thirtyfour and a half perches, North seventyseven degrees East forty nine and a half perches, North fifteen degrees West thirtyfive perches, South seventyseven degrees West, fourteen perches to the end of the second line of Addition to Harbour; thence running and bounding on the lines of Addition to Harbour the four following courses, that is to say: South seventyseven degrees West forty perches, South fifty six degrees West thirtyfour perches, South sixtyfour degrees West, thirtyfour perches, South thirtyone degrees West, thirteen and seven tenths perches; thence South sixty six degrees East sixtyseven perches, until it intersects the North twenty degrees East one hundred and fortyfive perches line of Addition to Harbour; and thence bounding on said line North twentyone degrees East nine and a half perches, to the place of beginning: Containing Twenty nine Acres of land, more or less; [being part of the Lands, which are described in a Deed from David Hoffman, Trustee, to the said George Hoffman, dated on or about the twentieth day of April AD 1831, and recorded among the Records of Baltimore County Court, in Liber W.G. No 214. Folio 468th];]

Together with all and singular the buildings, improvements ways, privileges and appurtenances to the said described Parcel of ground belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and all the estate, right, title, interest, or demand whatsoever, of the parties of the first part hereto, in, to, and out of the same: To have and To hold the said described Part of land, and every part and parcel thereof with the appurtenances, unto the said John G. Lemley, his heirs and assigns, forever, for his and their only use and behoof, and for no other use, intent or purpose whatsoever, free, clear and discharged from all claim and demand of the said parties of the first part, and all persons claiming by, through or under them, as by the said Deed is directed.

In witness whereof, the said Henrietta Hoffman, Widow as aforesaid, and the said Philip Rogers Hoffman and George Brice Hoffman, Executors as aforesaid, have hereunto subscribed their names and affixed their seals on the day and year first herein above written.

This Indenture made this Fourth day of October in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and fortyone, between Henrietta Hoffman, Widow of George Hoffman, late of Baltimore County, in the State of Maryland, deceased, Philip Rogers Hoffman, and George Brice Hoffman, surviving Executors of the last Will and Testament of the said George Hoffman, all of the same place, of the first part; and John Lemley, of the same place, of the second part.
✓ Whereas, the said Henrietta Hoffman, Widow as aforesaid, being, by the last Will and Testament of the said George Hoffman, Seized and possessed of a life-estate in certain property, lying in Baltimore County aforesaid, with a power and authority to the said Henrietta Hoffman, absolutely to sell and dispose of the residuary fee-simple estate in the same, by and with the advice and consent of the Executors of the said Will, Peter Hoffman, (who has since deceased,) Philip Rogers Hoffman and George Brice Hoffman, did heretofore that is to say, on the twentyfourth day of June ad 1836, by and with the advice and consent of the Executors aforesaid, agree to sell and convey unto George August Koch and Henry Pflegeng, a portion of the said property for the sum of Twelve hundred Dollars, and, in pursuance of said agreement, did, together with the Executors aforesaid, execute and deliver to the said Koch and Pflegeng, on the said twentyfourth day of June, a Bond of Conveyance for the portion aforesaid: And whereas, after the execution and delivery of the said Bond of Conveyance, the said Koch and Pflegeng caused the property therein mentioned to be divided into two equal parts, the said Koch taking possession of the one part, and the said Pflegeng of the other: And whereas, the said Koch, having divided his moiety into three parts, retained one part for himself, and sold and assigned the remaining two parts to John Lemley and John G. Lemley; and the said Pflegeng having divided his moiety into four parts, sold and assigned the same respectively to Joseph Prastel, Jacob Gernpp, Kraft Harger, and Charles Yerger: And whereas, the said Pfleeng, after said assignment, having removed out of the State of Maryland, and the purchase money, for the whole property aforesaid, with all interest accrued thereon, having been paid by the aforesaid assignees, in proportion to their respective interests therein, to the said parties of the first part, and the said parties of the first part having declined to convey to the said assignees, the portions of the said property respectively held by them, without the direction of some competent tribunal, the said assignees filed a Bill against the said parties of the first part, on the Equity side of Baltimore County Court, for the purpose of obtaining Conveyances as aforesaid, and it was thereupon decreed by Baltimore County Court aforesaid, sitting in equity, on the fourth day of September ad 1841, that the said parties of the first part, should convey to the aforesaid assignees respectively, certain portions of the property aforesaid, according to the divisions and bounds thereof laid down upon a Plat of the whole property, filed among the proceedings in the cause; and in pursuance and execution of the said Decree, these presents are executed:

✓ Now therefore this Indenture witnesses, that, for and in consideration of the Premises, and of the sum of Five Dollars to the parties hereto of the first part, paid by the party of the second part, at or before the execution and delivery of these presents the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, the said parties of the first part do hereby bargain, sell and convey unto the said John Lemley, the party of the second part hereto, his heirs and assigns, All that

✓ Tract or Parcel of Land, lying in Baltimore County aforesaid, which is contained within the following description; viz:

PLAN of the CITY of TALLAHASSEE

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

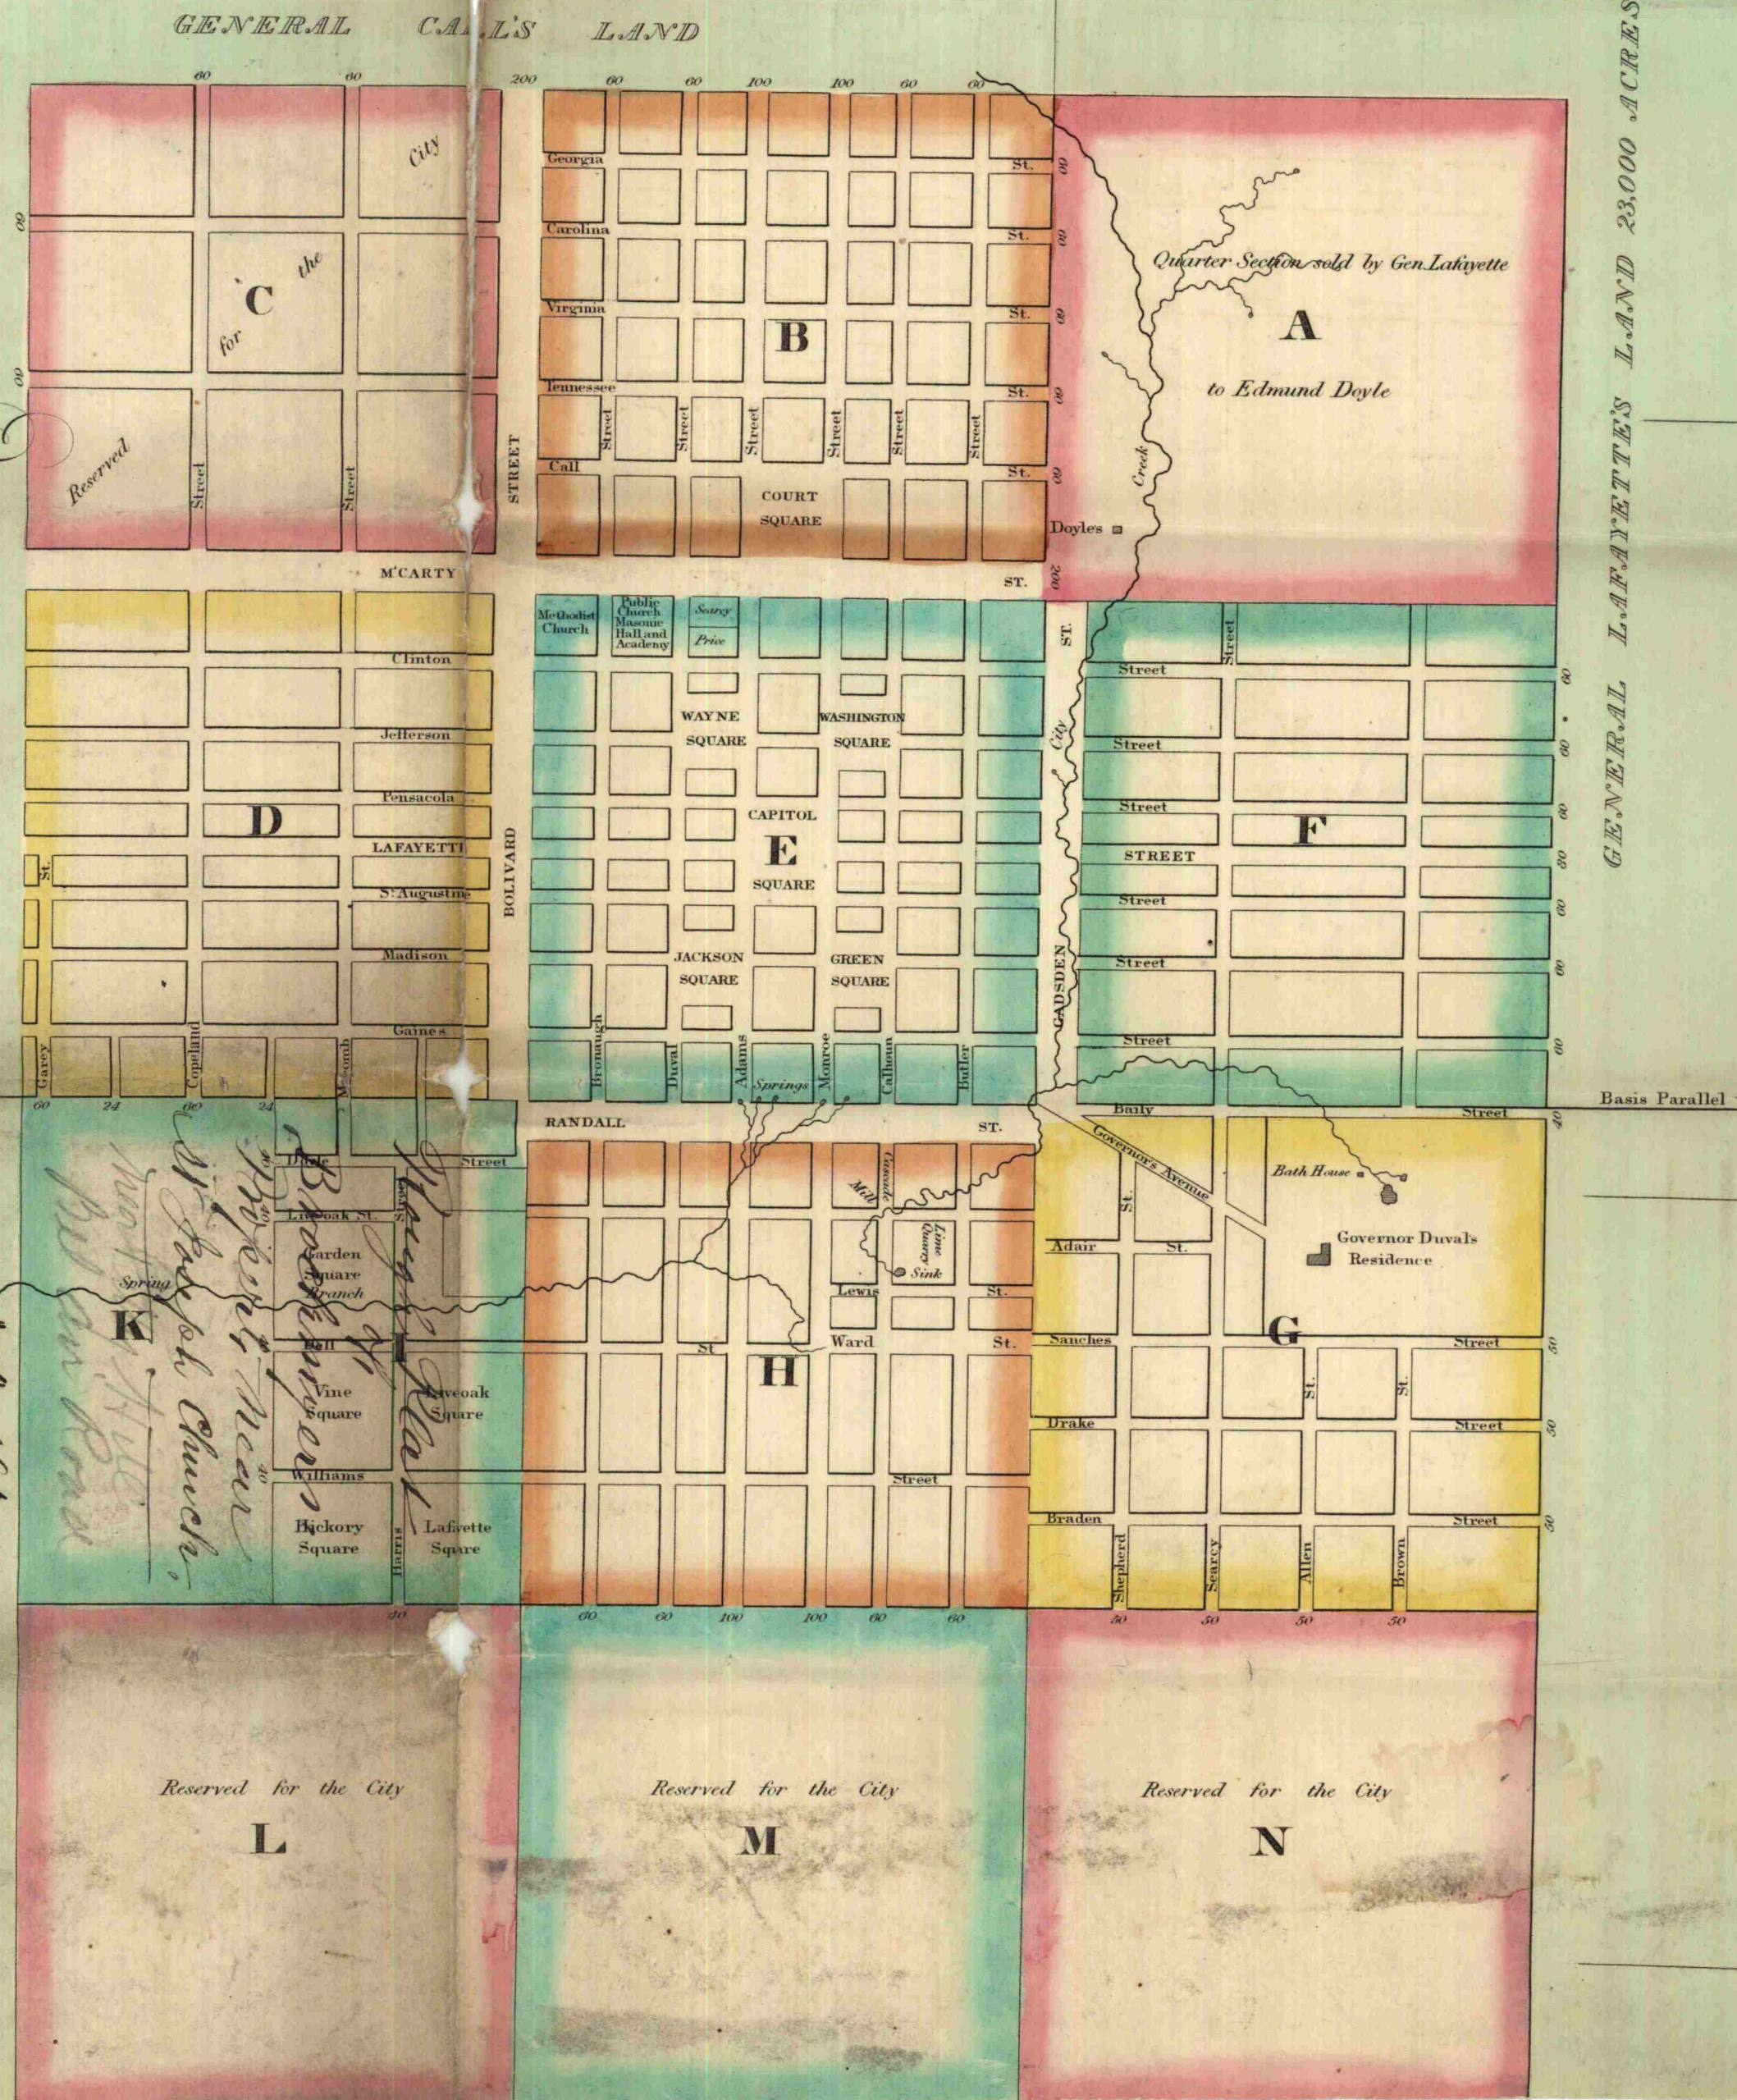

The original plan of Tallahassee embraced one quarter section of Land of 160 Acres the Square is designated by the letter E.

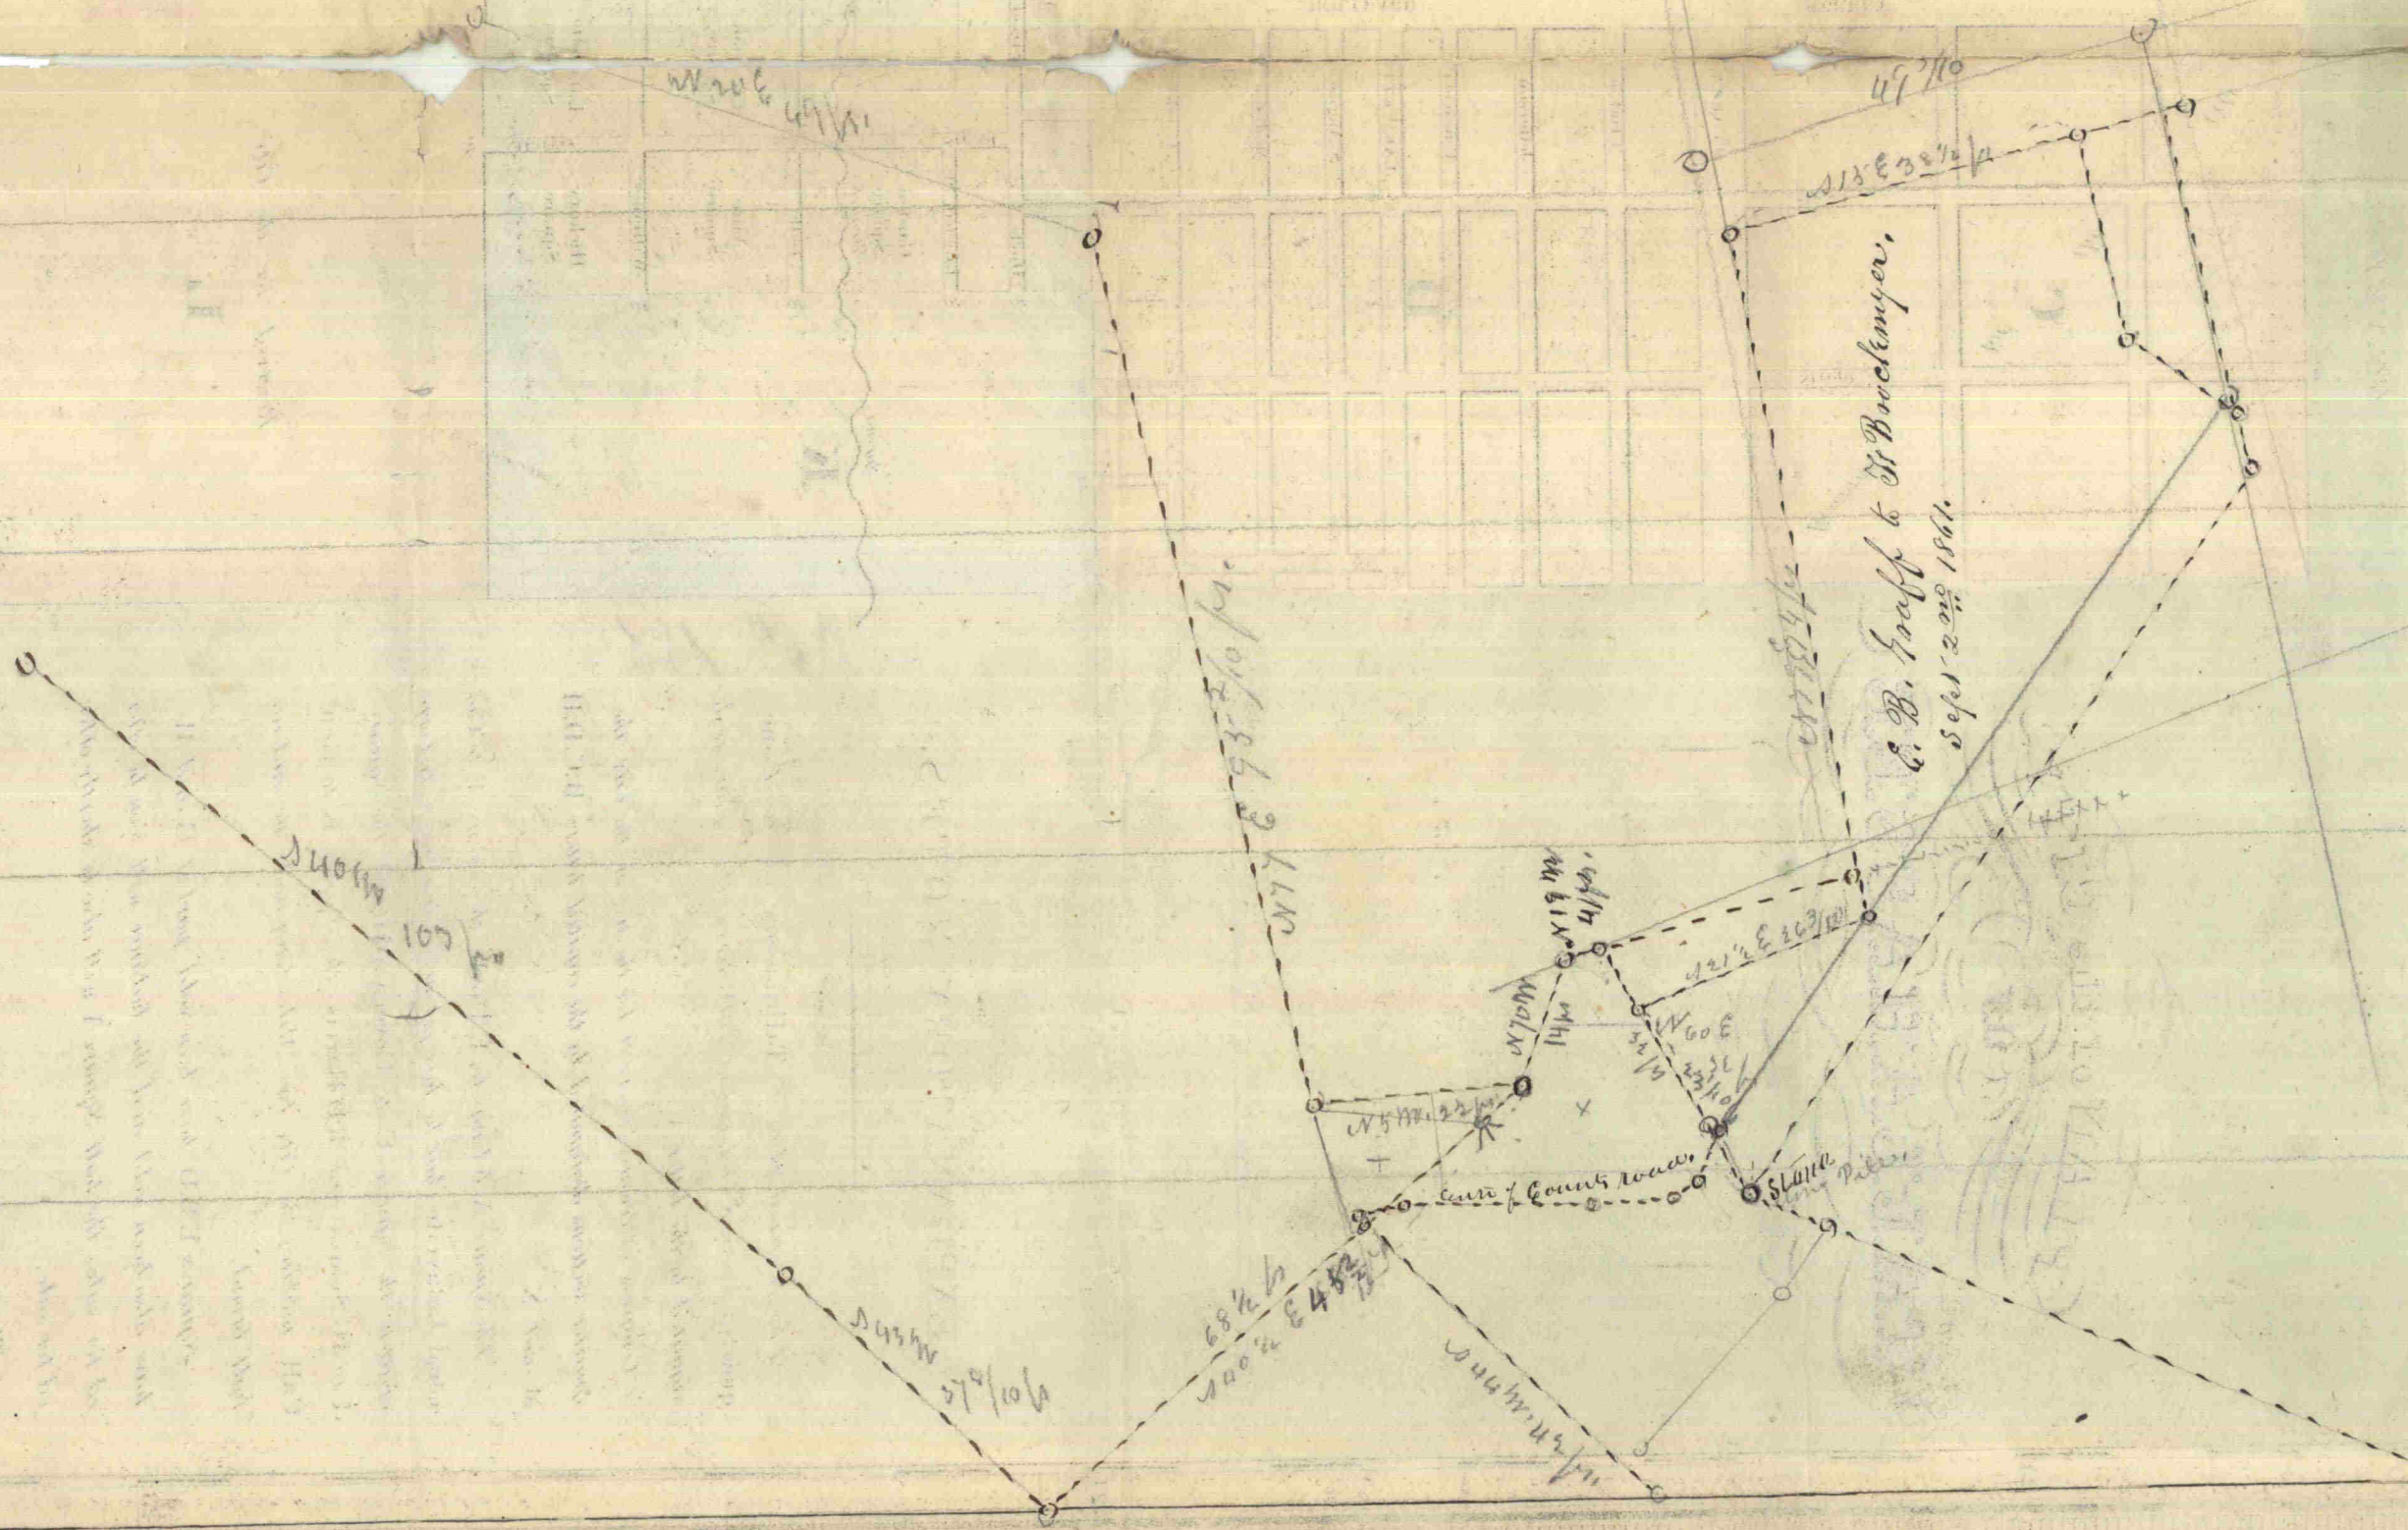

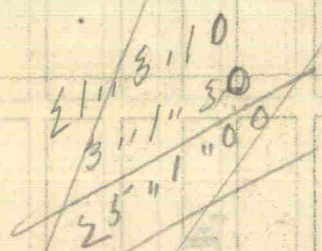

Congress afterwards reserved for the use of the City the quarter sections designated by the capital letters B,C,D,H M and N.

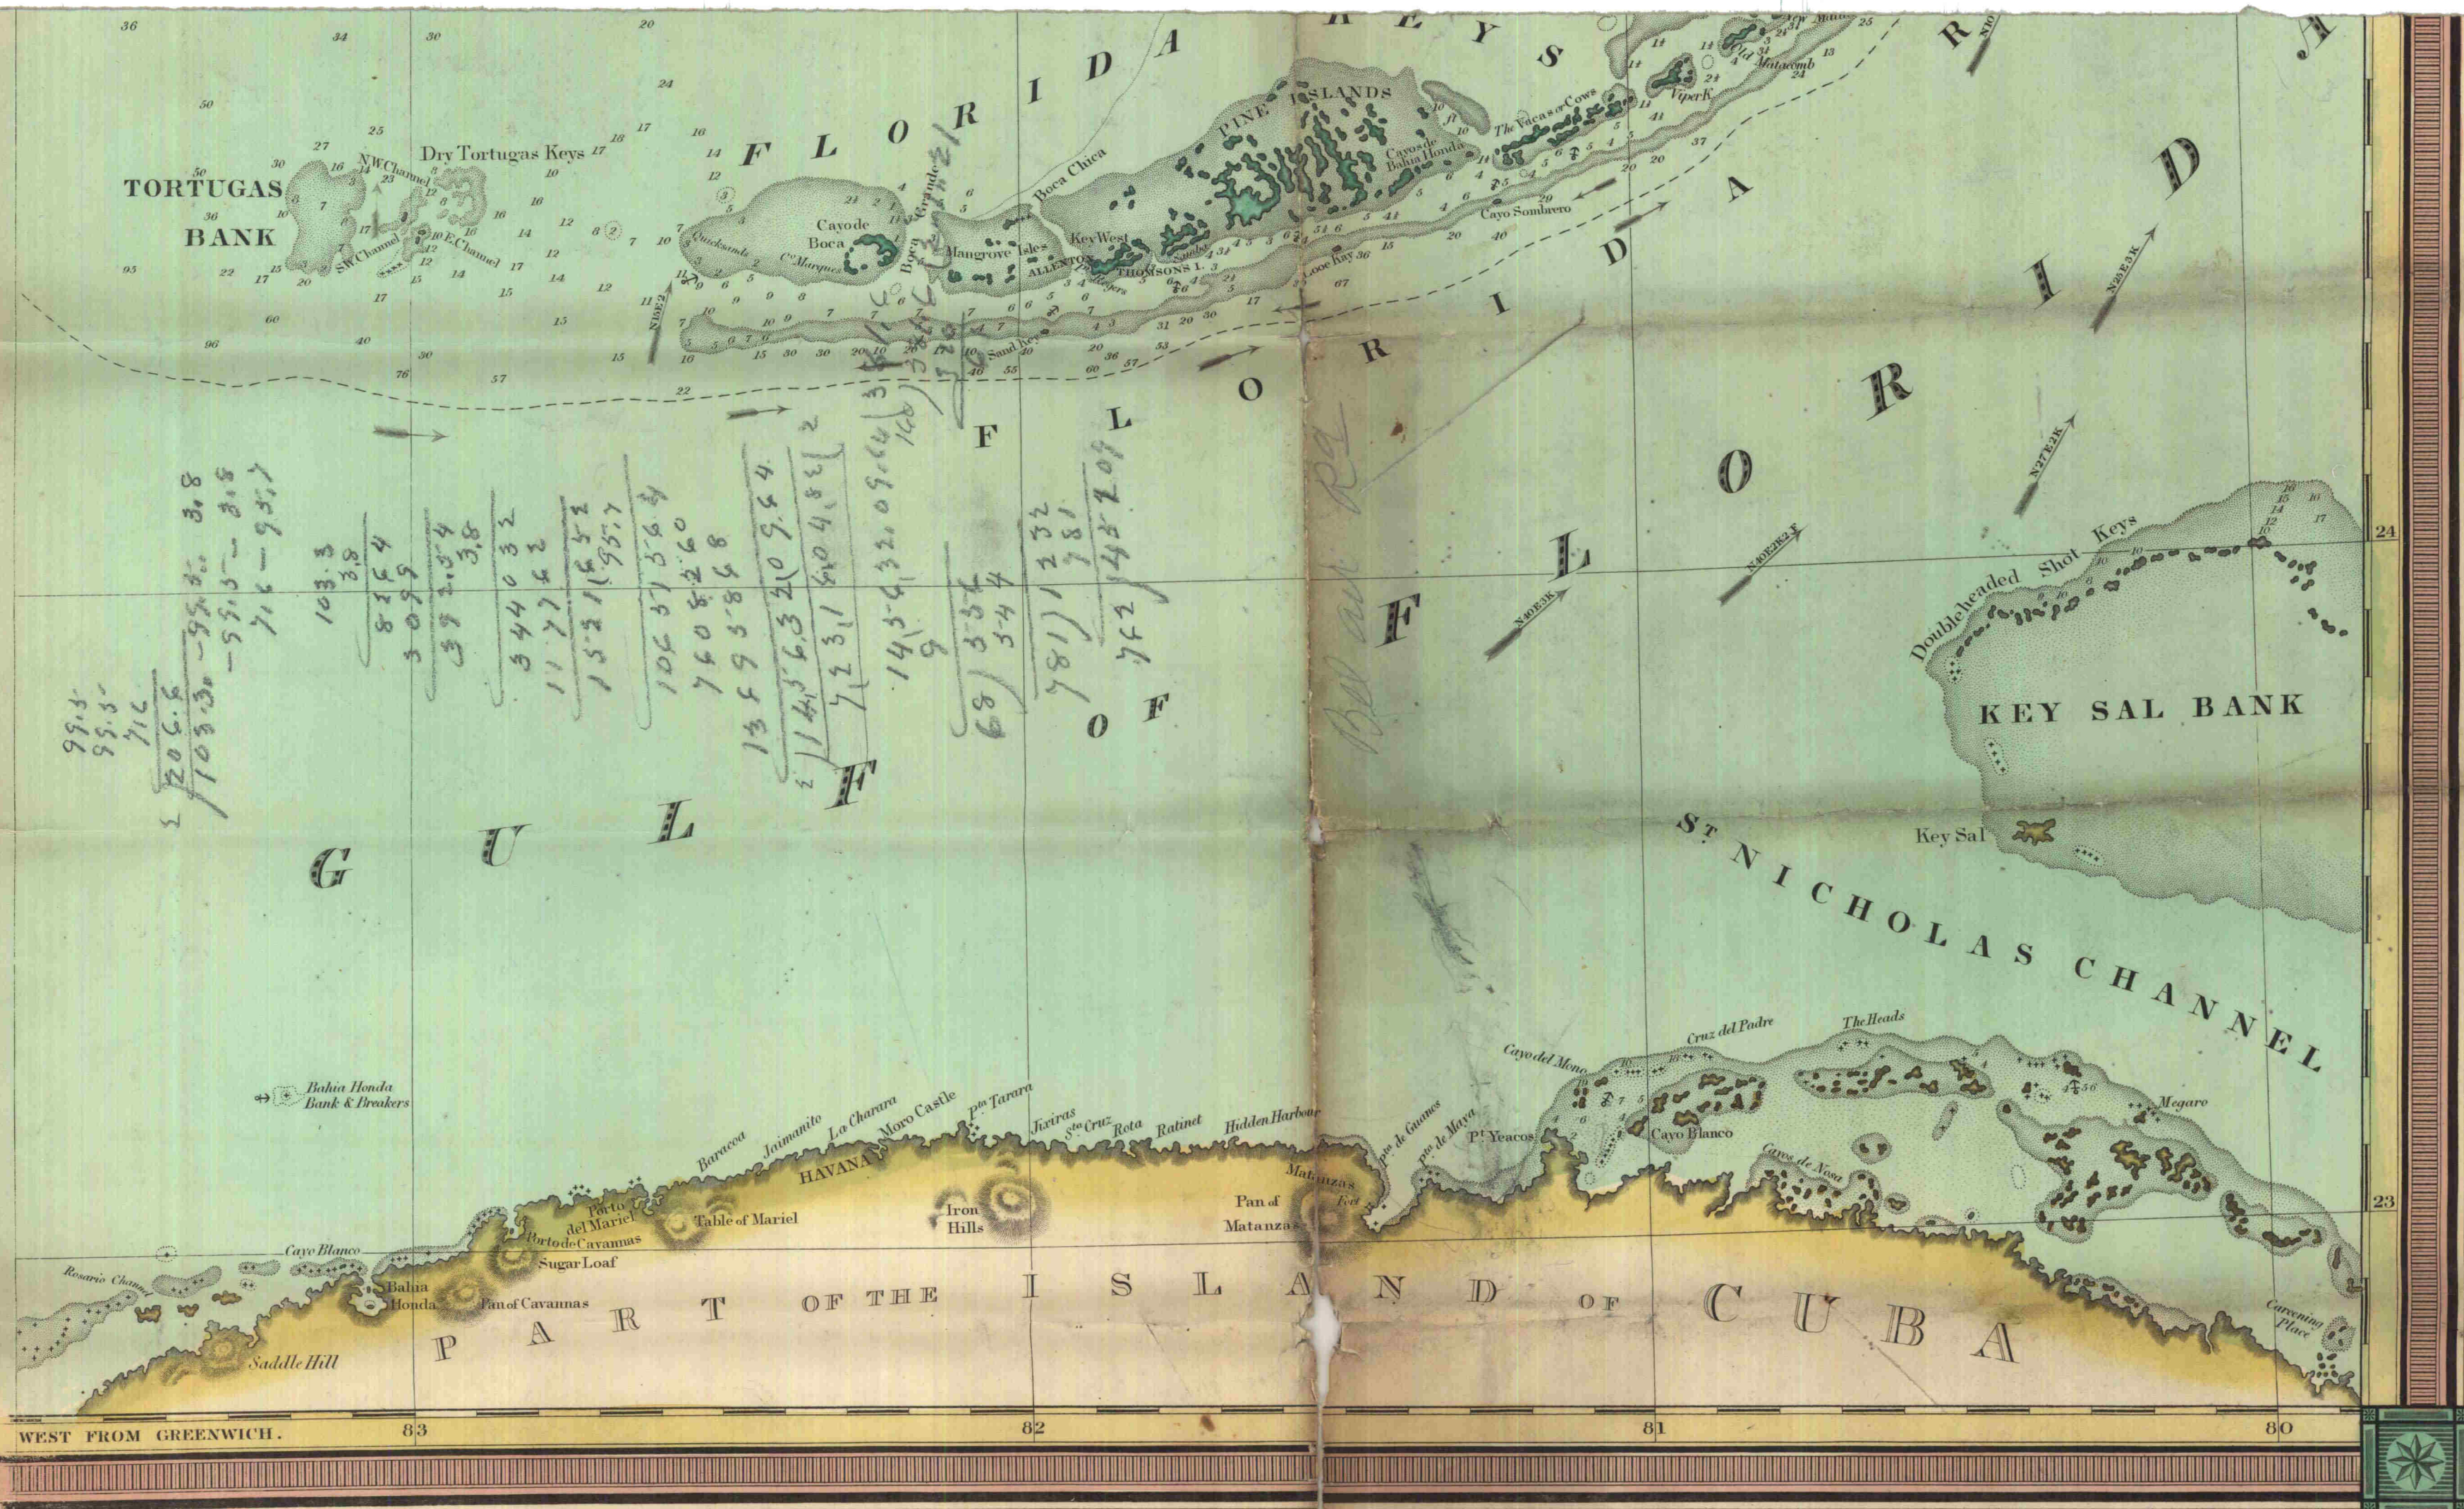

The Square A belongs to E.Doyle the Square F to General Lafayette but he has promised it to the City Corporation the Square G to Governor Duval the Square I to J.G.Searcy and R.D.Harris the Square K to Gen. Call making the City two Miles long and one and an half broad.

Squares E,B,D have been sold part of G and H have also been sold and the balance will soon be offered for sale; the half Square I will also be shortly offered for sale.

The figures opposite the Streets &c. designate their respective widths in Feet.
