L. M. P. No 20 Feb 1842

I give and devise to my son Moses C. Galloway all the land lying in Middle River tract on the S. West side of the line beginning for the same at a bounded stone at the main Hall of the Cold Spring — thence running North to another stone planted, thence Northwesterly to a bounded black gum being the line between the White House tract and my land during his natural life and up to his death to be divided between my two grandsons Wm A. Galloway and Robert C. Galloway as follows viz: that all the N. W part of said line beginning at said gum tree and running down and bounding on the Frenchs road to his gate and from thence to the head of Congress Cove to be the property of my grandson Wm A. Galloway and all the rest of said land to my grandson Robert C. Galloway and their heirs lawfully begotten for ever.
