Fourth Quarterly Report of the Pastor in charge of Sharp Street M. E. Church. To the Fourth Quarterly Conference held in Sharp Street M. E. Church Dec 18th 1885.

A number of Sunday schools within bounds of the charge. Two.

State of Sunday Schools— In the case of Sharp St. Sunday School. We are pleased to report in a good condition. Every department of the school is progressing and advancing in a state of growth and prosperity. The Mission Sunday School at Hillsville, though alive, is not what we would like it to be owing to a lack of efficient management. Yet we are hopeful of its better prosperity in a few months. The average attendance at Sharp St. is 375.

I have addressed the school frequently and instructed the children in the lessons of the series. Also have catechised them during the quarter.

I have not formed any classes for religious instructions this quarter.

Received into full connection 2 persons. Namely.— Ernest Dodson

To the President and members of the Fourth Quarterly Conference of Sharp St M. E. Church to convene Dec 18th 1885.

We your committee on Sunday Schools, submit the following report. That we have witnessed with satisfaction the work of the Sunday School of our church and are pleased to report, that in our judgment the school in every detail of its work is in a growing condition. The Superintendent Officers and Teachers are wise, intelligent diligent, and prompt to ~~obey~~ duty. In the study, and instructions of the lessons to the children, proper attention is given so that the lessons are understood, and made impressive. The scholars are regular in attendance upon the sessions of the school and many are being almost at every session to the membership of the school. A special feature in the exercises is the singing of the school which is unsurpassed and excellent. The finances are carefully and economically handled. Upon the whole the management is excellent. Arrangements have been made to supply the school with needed books in the near future which will greatly aid to the future welfare of its work. Respt. Submitted
