SECOND CONGRESS

OF THE UNITED STATES.

At the firſt ſeſſion, begun and held at the city of Philadelphia, in the ſtate of Pennſylvania, on Monday the twenty-fourth of October, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one.

An ACT for apportioning repreſentatives among the ſeveral ſtates, according to the firſt enumeration.

BE it enacted by the Senate, and Houſe of Repreſentatives of the United States of America in Congreſs aſſembled, That from and after the third day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, the houſe of repreſentatives ſhall be compoſed of members elected agreeably to a ratio of one member for every thirty-three thouſand perſons in each ſtate, computed according to the rule preſcribed by the conſtitution; that is to ſay: Within the ſtate of New Hampſhire, four; within the ſtate of Maſſachuſetts, fourteen; within the ſtate of Vermont, two; within the ſtate of Rhode-Iſland, two; within the ſtate of Connecticut, ſeven; within the ſtate of New-York, ten; within the ſtate of New-Jerſey, five; within the ſtate of Pennſylvania, thirteen; within the ſtate of Delaware, one; within the ſtate of Maryland, eight; within the ſtate of Virginia, nineteen; within the ſtate of Kentucky, two; within the ſtate of North-Carolina, ten; within the ſtate of South Carolina, ſix; and within the ſtate of Georgia, two members.

JONATHAN TRUMBULL, Speaker of the Houſe of Repreſentatives.

JOHN ADAMS, Vice-Preſident of the United States, and preſident of the Senate.

Approved, April 14th, 1792.

GEORGE WASHINGTON, Preſident of the United States.

Depoſited among the Rolls in the office of the Secretary of State, 2

THOMAS JEFFERSON, Secretary of State.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act directing the time, places and manner, of holding elections for repreſentatives of this ſtate in the congreſs of the United States, and for appointing electors on the part of this ſtate for chooſing a preſident and vice-preſident of the United States, and for the regulation of the ſaid elections, and alſo to repeal the act of aſſembly therein mentioned.

BE it enacted, by the general aſſembly of Maryland, That provided this ſtate ſhould be entitled to nine members in the next houſe of repreſentatives of the United States, then and in that caſe it ſhall be and is hereby divided into eight diſtricts, in the following order, to wit: Saint-Mary's, Charles, and Calvert counties, ſhall be the firſt; Prince-George's and Anne-Arundel counties, including the city of Annapolis, the ſecond; Montgomery county, and that part of Frederick county adjacent, as far as Monocacy, from the mouth thereof to the Pennſylvania line, the third; the remainder of Frederick county, Waſhington and Allegany counties, the fourth; Baltimore-town, and Baltimore and Harford counties, the fifth; Cæcil, Kent, and Queen-Anne's counties, the ſixth; Caroline, Talbot, and Dorcheſter counties, the ſeventh; and Somerſet and Worceſter counties, the eighth, diſtricts.

And be it enacted, That provided this ſtate ſhould be entitled to no more than eight members as aforeſaid, then and in that caſe it ſhall be and is hereby divided into eight diſtricts, to wit: The firſt four ſhall remain as in the preceding clauſe; Baltimore-town and Baltimore county ſhall be the fifth; Harford, Cæcil, and Kent counties, the ſixth; Queen-Anne's, Caroline, and Talbot counties, the ſeventh; and Dorcheſter, Somerſet, and Worceſter counties, ſhall be the eighth, diſtricts.

And be it enacted, That the ſheriff of Frederick county ſhall cauſe two diſtinct polls to be kept, one for the voters of that part of the county which lies within the third diſtrict, and one for that part of the county which lies within the fourth diſtrict.

And be it enacted, That each diſtrict ſhall be entitled to ſend one member, except in the event of this ſtate's being entitled to nine members, and in that caſe the fifth diſtrict ſhall be allowed (and each voter in ſaid diſtrict may vote for) two members; the elections, in all other reſpects, ſhall be held at the time, in the manner, and according to the directions of the act to which this is a ſupplement.

And be it enacted, That every perſon entitled and offering to vote for electors of preſident and vice-preſident, agreeably to the directions of the act to which this is a ſupplement, ſhall, if this ſtate ſhould be entitled to ten electors, have a right to vote for ten perſons, ſix of whom ſhall be reſidents of the weſtern and four of the eaſtern ſhore; and if this ſtate ſhould be entitled to eleven electors, every perſon as aforeſaid ſhall have a right to vote for eleven perſons, ſeven of whom ſhall be reſidents of the weſtern and four of the eaſtern ſhore; and the ſix or ſeven perſons, as the caſe may be, reſidents of the weſtern, and the four reſidents of the eaſtern, ſhore, having the greateſt number of votes of all the candidates of their reſpective ſhores, ſhall be declared to be duly elected.

And be it enacted, That ſo much of the act to which this is a ſupplement which is inconſiſtent with the proviſions of this act, be and the ſame is hereby repealed.

And be it enacted, That as ſoon as congreſs paſs an act aſcertaining the ratio of repreſentation, the governor and council are hereby requeſted to cauſe the ſame, together with this act, to be publiſhed in the Maryland Journal, and Baltimore Advertiſer, the Annapolis and the Easton papers. 2

Chaptico, St. Mary's county, May 5, 1792.

BEING deſirous to remove from this county in a ſhort time, I hereby offer, at private ſale, about 600 acres of land, adjoining Chaptico, late the property of James Mills, Eſquire, deceaſed—On this land there is upwards of a hundred acres of valuable woods, and about fifty acres of excellent dry marſh; the greateſt part of the land lies level, and capable of great improvement; the ſituation is healthy and delightful, adjoining the waters of Chaptico Bay, which affords the greateſt plenty of fiſh and wild fowl in their ſeaſon; the buildings are elegant and convenient, and the improvements of every kind valuable; there is an incumbrance of a life-eſtate in about two hundred and fifty acres. It is needleſs to give a further deſcription, as it is preſumed any perſon inclining to purchaſe would be deſirous of viewing the land and improvements. I will alſo ſell a few likely young negroes that are to be free as they ſeverally arrive to the years of forty. The prices and terms of ſale may be known at any time by applying to the ſubſcriber.

2 WILLIAM MILLS.

April 30, 1792.
