Be it remembered that on this 24 day of March 1825. personally appears before me the subscriber a Justice of the peace for the County and State aforesaid. John Hebb. and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty god. that about two years after the Treaty between Great Britton and the united States. that he the said Hebb heard in a conversation, between Thomas Lynch owner of Two negroes who went on board of the Brittish Squadron lying in Saint Mary's river or the mouth of Potomack. Commanded by Admiral Cockbeven and a certain Capt. Freeman Collins, Commander of the Brig Dasher of Hallifax, he the said Hebb understood from the parties Collins & Lynch that the said brig had been to the port of Alexandria in the district of Columbia about three or four months previous to this conversation - from the said Conversation this deponent understood that Lynch had requested Collins to make some inquiery in Hallifax respecting his negroes. Gee and Jacob, that he Collins told him. the said Lynch that he saw his negroes but could not prevail on them to come Home with him - that they were in the County near Hallifax and that one of them had built a house — further the deponent saith not —
