And Whereas my Wife is seized in her own right of a tract of land adjoining that which I hold in my own right, containing about six hundred acres, and which she has agreed to divide amongst our three Sons. William Lynch Owings, Charles Reigely Owings, and James Winchester Owings, and to execute conveyances to them for their respective parts in fee simple. &c &c. To William Lynch Owings; the centre or middle Lot as designated upon the aforesaid partition thereof, (with the exception of the part above described,) and also all that part of the upper or third lot of the said partition upon which my said Son William has recently planted an orchard, and also the piece of Wood land adjoining the said Young Orchard and running up to the road. -

+ Item, I give and devise to my son William Lynch Owings Twenty five acres of Woodland to be laid off on the south of the said new Road along Sata Hill. - To Hold the same to the said William Lynch Owings, his heirs and assigns forever. -

X In the location of the said Lots I direct that they shall adjoin each other, and the Eastern one be designated for Charles, and the Western one for William. -
