following Inquisition, to wit Maryland Washington County to wit An Inquisition taken at the house of Michael Coffman in the County and State aforesaid on the twenty fifth day of March 1826, before me David Rohrer one of the Justices of the Peace for the said State and County aforesaid, upon the view of the body of Michael Coffman, then and there lying dead upon the oath of good and lawful men of the County aforesaid, who being sworn upon the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God and charged to enquire, when asked, how and after what manner the said Michael Coffman came to his death, do say upon their oath, that Michael Coffman came to his death by hanging himself by the neck. In witness whereof, as well the aforesaid Justice of the Peace as the Jurors have to this Inquisition set their hands and seals on the day and year aforesaid and at the place aforesaid

Declaration and Report 4th Decr 1820 full naturalized
 Wm M Laughton witness

James McGonnagal having on the fourth day of December in the year eighteen hundred and twenty made his report to the Clerk of this Court, and having at the same time declared on oath his intention to become a citizen of the United States agreeably to an Act of Congress. The said James McGonnagal now appears in open Court here, and prays to become a citizen of the United States, whereupon it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court here that the said James McGonnagal resided, five years and upwards within and under the jurisdiction of the United States, and also resided one year and upwards last past within the State of Maryland, and it also appearing from the testimony of William M Laughton a witness produced and sworn in open Court that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same, and the said William James McGonnagal having declared on oath in open Court here that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiances and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the King of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland. The Court therefore admit the said James McGonnagal to become a citizen of the United States
