Peter a Harman deft. and David Cohen Pet.

Be it remembred. that Peter Harman, an alien having heretofore, to wit, on the twenty third day of Novem-ber in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hun-dred and twenty five, made his repeat to the Clerk of this Court, and at the same time in open Court de-clared his intention on oath to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty, whatsoever and particularly to the Re-public of Switzerland, as required by the laws estab-lishing an uniform rule of Naturalization - Now here in open Court appears, and prays to be ad-mitted to naturalization as a citizen of the United States - And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court here on the testimony of David Cohen a citizen of the United States known in open Court here that the said Peter Harman, resided five years and up-wards within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States, and also resided one year and upwards last past within the State of Maryland that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same, and the said Peter Harman having declared on oath in open Court here that he will support the Constitution of the United States and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty what-soever and particularly to the Republic of Switzerland

The Court thereupon admit the said Peter Harman to naturalization as a citizen of the United States -

John Eckstein fully nat. David Cohen Pet.

Be it remembred, that John Eckstein, an 149
alien, having heretofore, to wit, on the third day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty five, made his repeat to the Clerk of this Court, and at the same time in open Court de-clared his intention on oath to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the King of Wirtemburg as required by the laws establishing an uniform rule of naturalization. Now here in open Court appears and prays to be admitted to become a citizen of the United States. And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court here on the testimony of David Cohen a citizen of the United States known in open Court here that the said John Eckstein resided five years and up-wards within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States, and also resided one year and upwards last past within the State of Maryland that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States and well dis-posed to the good order and happiness of the same And the said John Eckstein having declared on oath in open Court here that he will support the constitution of the United States and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all alle-giance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate State or Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the King of Wirtemburg - The Court thereupon admit the said John Eckstein to naturalization as a citizen of the United States.

Be it remembard, that on this twenty seventh day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty James Marr a native of Ireland, now residing in Washington County appears in open Court here and exhibits a report of himself, and petition for admission as a citizen of the United States in form following, to wit.

To the Honorable the Judges of Washington County Court. The petition of James Marr a native of Ireland now residing in Washington County, who is desirous of becoming a citizen of the United States respectfully represents. That his name is James Marr. that he was born in the County of Kildare in Ireland in the year eighteen hundred and seven and owes allegiance to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. that he emigrated from Ireland in February eighteen hundred and twenty three and arrived at Baltimore on the thirteenth day of April following. that at the time of his arrival in the United States he was a minor under the age of twenty one years. to wit. sixteen years of age. he now resides and intends to continue his residence in Washington County. Witness his hand this 27th November 1830.

Test. James his X Marr
E. Lansdale mark

And the said James Marr having proved to the satisfaction of the Court here by the oath Conrad Hildebrand a citizen of the United States sworn in open Court here, that at the time of his arrival in the United States he was under twenty one years of age, and continued to reside therein to the time of making his present application to be admitted a citizen thereof. and that he has arrived at the age of twenty one years and resided five years and upwards within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States including three years of his minority: and that he has now declared on oath in open Court that it is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and also declared on oath that for three years next preceding it has been bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States. And having also proved to the satisfaction of the Court here by the oath of the said Conrad Hildebrand a citizen of the United States that he has resided five years and upwards within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States and one year and upwards last past within the State of Maryland, that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. And the said James Marr having also declared on oath in open Court that he will support the Constitution of the United States and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. The Court thereupon admit the said James Marr to become a citizen of the United States.—
