Be it remembered that now here on the 20th day of November 1837. James McNamara having produced in open Court a Certificat of his application before the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia for Washington County dated on the 7th August 1830 to become a Citizen of the United States and having at the same time made oath on the holy Evangels of Almighty God that it is his bona fide intention to become a Citizen of the United States and to renounce forever all allegiance to any foreign Prince Potentate State or Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland of whom he was by law establishing an uniform rule of Naturalization and pray to become a Citizen of the United States. And it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court here on the testimony of David Ragan a Citizen of the United States sworn in open Court that the said James McNamara has resided five years and upwards last past within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States and also resided one year and upwards last past within the State of Maryland and that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character attached to the Constitution of the United States and well disposed to the good Order and happiness of the same. And the said James McNamara having declared on oath that he will support the Constitution of the United States and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State and Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly to the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland — The Court thereupon admit the said James McNamara to naturalization as a Citizen of the United States —

Be it remembered that now here on this 20th day of November, 1837. David Ragan an Alien, having heretofore, to wit, on the 20th day of November 1835, made his report to the Clerk of Washington County Court and at the same time declared in Open Court his intention to become a citizen of the United States as required by law establishing an uniform rule of Naturalization, and the several Additions thereto — Now here in Open Court personally appeare and prays to be admitted to Naturalization as a citizen of the United States. Whereupon it appearing to the Satisfaction of the Court here upon the testimony of James McNamara a citizen of the United States, sworn in Open Court here that the said David Ragan has resided five years and upwards last past, within the limits of and under the jurisdiction of the United States, and also resided for the last year within the State of Maryland, that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the Good Order and happiness of the same. And the said David Ragan having declared in Open Court that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he doth absolutely and entirely renounce all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to the King of Great Britain and Ireland. The Court thereupon admit the said David Ragan to Naturalization as a Citizen of the United States.

The Court adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.
