Minutes and Proceedings

J. A. Mason Esqr. Presented to the Court the Resolutions on the death of Alexander Neill Esqr. by the Bar association, Filed Aug 1. 1910. See Resolution in rough bundle" to be acted upon the first day of the Nov. Term of Court.

Resolved by the Members of the Bar of the Circuit Court for Washington County, That in the death of Alexander Neill Esquire, We suffer the loss of one who had become endeared to us by his many acts of Kindness, his open frankness, and his uniform Courtesy in the discharge of the duties of his profession. Coming to the Bar at an early age, in June 1865, he at once took rank as an able and honorable practitioner, and during his long career of forty five years at the bar, invariably illustrated the leading virtues of the lawyer. He was distinguished for the clearness of his judgment, the precision of his ideas and the strength of his convictions. He had an accurate and tenacious memory, and his knowledge of the law was at once varied and profound. Calm and dispassionate in his method of thought, his legal intuitions were almost unerring, and he was universally regarded as one of the Safest and Soundest of Counsellors. While at the trial table, his grasp was Comprehensive and Sure, and his argument forcible and Convincing. A large and extensive practice attested the appreciation by the public, both of his professional worth, and of his unquestioned honor and integrity. To no one has a larger meed of Confidence and trust been accorded.

On all public questions his attitude was Candid, just and Sincere, and never influenced by partisan bias or personal interest.

He loved his Community and its people and aimed always to secure for them the highest benefit.

He has passed from amongst us with the regret and respect of all who knew him. His fellow members of the Bar will always hold his memory in esteem, and his Course amongst them as a lawyer of the best standard.
