Saturday, Nov. 28, 1925. Court met pursuant to adjournment, present on the Bench Hon. Frank G. Wagaman, and Albert A. Doub, Associate Judges.

Court met today for the purpose of passing resolutions upon the deaths of Henry H. Keedy, Jr., and Judge A. Hunter Boyd.

RESOLUTION PASSED BY THE WASHINGTON COUNTY BAR
IN MEMORY OF CHIEF JUDGE OF MARYLAND, ANDREW HUNTER BOYD.

Judge Boyd was born in Winchester, Virginia, on the 15th day of July 1849, was graduated from the Washington and Lee University of his native State, removed to Cumberland, Maryland in 1871, and engaged in the practice of law until he was elevated to the Bench of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of Maryland as Chief Judge, in April 1873 by the appointment at the hands of Governor Frank Brown. After over a period of 50 years of his professional and official career he died in Cumberland, Maryland, on the 2nd day of August, 1925. He was a brilliant advocate at the Bar and Jurist of profound legal knowledge. He was from August 1873 for thirty years Chief Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of this State, seventeen years of which time Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of Maryland.

In the records of the Court of Appeals Judge Boyd's opinions extend from 78 to 145 Md. They will ever stand as enduring testimonial of his faithful work on the Bench. Judge Boyd was a man of kind disposition and sympathetic feelings, of deep convictions and unquestionable integrity.

He was distinguished for his ability as a Lawyer and Jurist and above all a Christian gentleman.

In the course of human events but few men attained such distinctions as Judge Boyd, but it is true that all was the result of his earnestness, faithfulness, industry and strict integrity, with such qualities dominant in him, the word failure was not in his vocabulary. He believed in a strict observance of the rules of practice and procedure in his Court, as the means of making an accomplished and true lawyer. In his death the State has lost one of its very best citizens.

MEMORIAL UPON THE DEATH OF HENRY H. KEEDY, JR.

The Bar of Hagerstown lost a quiet, forceful and most capable member in the death, on June 29, 1925 of Henry H. Keedy, Jr. Ever since he began the practice of his profession in 1893 he had wielded a constantly expanding influence in our community life due to the fact that he was one of those rare persons whose mental powers mature slowly but steadfastly and surely as the years pass. Mr. Keedy's associates in the law, in business and in the Maryland Surety and Trust Company, for which he acted as counsel, had come to rely with increasing confidence upon his broad knowledge of the law, the soundness of his judgment and his clear, common sense analyses of the various problems which were presented to him. To all of these the news of his death, following an illness of only a week, came as a profound shock and brought a sense of irreparable loss.

People listened when Harry Keedy spoke, for, although he was a man of few words, of rather hesitating speech in fact, nevertheless when he did speak he did so deliberately, cautiously and only after thoughtful reflection. His utterances were therefore accepted by his clients as rules of conduct which they could follow with a feeling of complete security while even his adversaries learned from experience to hold them in high regard and to ignore them at their peril.

Mr. Keedy's success was won by his studious and industrious habits and the thoroughness which he devoted himself to the discharge of all his professional obligations. He was never known to transgress any of the ethical canons of the profession, yet he was always a zealous advocate and unrelenting in the prosecution or defense of his clients interests. An element of his strength lay in his ability to form and announce convictions and to adhere to them firmly and courageously, even though this recognition of duty sometimes threatened to jeopardize personal and social relations. His dignity, his candor, his sense of fairness and his extreme modesty, however, not only made him one of the most highly respected and esteemed members of the Maryland Bar, but won for him also the affection of a host of friends, clients and business associates.

Mr. Keedy did not participate in any large sense in community affairs, nor was he ever active in politics. He realized that the law is a jealous mistress and to the law and the demands which it placed upon him he dedicated, without stint, and to the exclusion of all other distracting influences, his best energies and the finest service of which he was capable.

Mr. Keedy's private life was a very simple and beautiful one. His wife, to whom he was married on April 28, 1899, was Miss Laura V. Loose, daughter of Henry C. and Virginia

MINUTES AND PROCEEDINGS

Pearson Loose, of Hagerstown. He and Mrs. Keedy found great happiness in their mutual love of flowers and appreciation of music, literature and the other things which represent the culture of the day. Mrs. Keedy and two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Boward and Miss Julia Keedy survive him.

Mr. Keedy was born in Hagerstown on January 26, 1872 and was a son of Henry H. Keedy and Julia M. (Lane) Keedy. His early education was secured at Lawrenceville Academy and Princeton University. It was in the office of his father, who was for many years one of Hagerstown's ablest, most earnest and most successful lawyers, that Mr. Keedy studied law, and during the year of his father's death that he was admitted to the Bar and began the practice in association with his uncle and his father's partner, J. Clarence Lane. For over half a century no name has been more honored at the Bar of this County or throughout the State than that of Henry H. Keedy, the father and the son. That name has always represented industry, ability and integrity. It is with profound sorrow that we now make formal announcement to the Court that the hand of fate has finally stricken it from the roster of our active practitioners.
